Well things change & life just carries on. Toy has now left us for good to seek her own path through life, I guess it had to come, she's young & ambitious. She was such a blessing to us all & we really do love & miss her. We had 17 years of life together & went through things that no one else will ever know, nor understand, some of the deepest things life throws at us, Toy was there by our side. We saw 'life & death' experiences together & she was our very best friend. We just hope & pray that everything works out for her. She's a clever young lady & no matter what she does with her life, I'm sure she'll succeed. Toy will be a blessing to anyone she teams up with I'm sure & a great asset to any church she joins. Please pray for her, & if you know her email, drop her a line to encourage her. Thanks for everything Toy, you will be irreplaceable, see you in Heaven! We supported Toy all the way to the end as she was such a great friend. She has parted with a gift from JDA of an A5 Cabriolet car just to say thank you, not a bad send off I'd say!

New JDA & Tft! Team

Well with Toy relinquishing her Directorship & leaving JDA (as well as Tft!) we would like to introduce you to Cristian & Liz, who have now 'joined' both JDA & Tft! although not in a full capacity as yet. They are both working with us to help grow JDA. Liz is our new area sales coordinator who is mainly responsible for appointment making & helping to look after the database etc. Cristian is mainly working behind the scenes as he is an I.T. expert; he is also building JDA a website & running the Tft! website alongside. They are both proving to be great assets & friends to the ministry & business. Lord willing, our team will continue to deepen & grow as the Lord leads us. We are always looking for dedicated, sincere, open & honest Christians to work with us, & both Cristian & Liz are really proving themselves (1 Tim 3v10 + 1 Tim 5v22) worthwhile. Both have spent hour upon hour helping to improve JDA & Tft! to which we are very grateful for. They have both seen first-hand, how 'full-on' it is to work at JDA & Tft!, it never stops! Others have had chances to work with us & get involved but didn't want it, or weren't committed enough, our Romanian friends have put their hands to the plough & they're working. I think it was the second week that Lizzy had a meltdown, but she has recovered & now she is back on fire again. Unless you are IN IT, people don't realise how intense running a business, ministry & church is.

Change...

So already as you can see, there are quite a few changes taking place, & as you read through this issue you will see all kinds of different things taking place. I'm not really a lover of change on the whole, but oftentimes it can be for the good & I just need to accept it. Oftentimes we pray thinking that we know best & how God should react to our requests, yet really, we ought to be praying that's God's will be done as He knows what is best for us. The sooner we learn that the better, God KNOWS what is BEST for us, we don't most of the time. I would suggest listening to study 65 on the book of Romans for more details on this issue. There are times when it's best that people leave you even when you don't really want them to, it's best for BOTH parties that a split takes place. You may not see it at the time, but down the line when you look back, you'll realise. I have come to understand that more & more as I get older. It's interesting that these two verses say the same thing... Prov 14v12 + Prov 16v25... There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but... you think you know best, but you don't. It was wrong for me to stop running & stop sport at 40... in my opinion! But God knew best, & do you know what, it was RIGHT I had BOTH hips removed, as I couldn't do what I'm doing now, the Lord had to STOP ME, as I wasn't listening. These major operations were needed for the Lord to use me as He wants to. If it had been my way, I wouldn't have taken this route. I am wrong, the Lord is right, that's it in a nutshell. He knows what is BEST for me. I would say that 99.99% of Christians think the same way as me, & that way is WRONG! Get that & you'll learn an invaluable lesson on life.

Jersey Trip

Cristian, Liz, Donna, Dee & I spent four days in Jersey recently. It has been a few years since we visited this island & this time we took the car via ferry, which takes 4 hours. It was mainly a short relaxing break but we did include a little business & a lot of tracting. We spent the days travelling all over the island & included a visit to the War Tunnels which is incredible. We distributed hundreds of Gospel tracts all over the place. It was also quite amazing to find that our friend Isaac was still the manager of the hotel restaurant where we stayed & it was great to catch up with him again. He is a Christian & we sent his pastor in Kenya a load of tracts & books years ago. We will do the same again this year after meeting up with Isaac.

It was a very enjoyable short break & the tracting made it very worthwhile as many of the houses we visited, I doubt would have received a Gospel tract. Jersey is one of our favourite places to visit, we have a lot of happy memories there.

What Next?

Regarding JDA we are always looking at ways to expand & grow in the Lord's will. If we were just money-motivated we would be seeking to import from China ourselves, but we're not, so we shall grow 'organically' asking the Lord to guide our every decision & bless our Christian business. We are looking to take on three more 'Principals' (companies) to represent & we are 'in negotiation' with them at present.

Regarding TfT! we are all pulling in the same direction, to get the Gospel out to sinners & help as many Christians along the way as we can. It is extremely encouraging sending out thousands of Gospel tracts each year, hoping & praying that souls will get saved. There is nothing more important than getting the Gospel out to sinners. Many Christians have resorted to armchair Christianity, living on YouTube these days, which just goes to show what a state the Church is in today.

Regarding The Oaks Church we shall continue being a light in the darkness, preaching & teaching the word of God.

Are You SATANIC?

Know this, if anyone says that the Holy Spirit has shown them an error in the King James Bible, they are Satanic LIARS & NEVER to be trusted! Bible correctors love to try to find errors in the KJV Bible, but they will always regurgitate what another Bible 'corrector' has said, rather than actually say that the Holy Spirit has shown them PERSONALLY an error – they are spineless COWARDS! Recently I received a number of emails from a nut-job woman Bible 'corrector'. Once cornered she ran for the bushes, like all Bible 'correctors', they have no real answers. This gob-on-a-stick woman has NO Final Authority & can't PROVE that she is even saved because she can't trust the Bible, I mean NUTS man, absolute NUTS, but can't see it. If you start 'correcting' God's Book, you are Demon (Devil) possessed!

The Mad-Fake-Tongue-Speaker from Up North!

Recently a guy from the North of England purchased our book 'The Christian Soldiers Battle Notes (CSBN)'. It has been a huge help to him, but he had a 'melt-down' when he came to the chapter exposing tongue-speakers in this dispensation, so much so that he phoned me to tell me how Satanic I was to say they had ceased. After two minutes of ranting & raving & me 'letting him have it' as they say, he slammed the phone down. Over the next two days he text me over 60 times & called me again. I rose to the challenge (& quite enjoyed it) & shot him down each time. Needless to say, according to him, I am now unsaved & working for the Devil. I'm not saying he is the biggest idiot I've come across, but he is certainly up there in the rankings. Imagine being 72 years old & standing up in your local church babbling incomprehensible sounds pretending to be speaking in some sort of heavenly language... what a load of old tosh! When he stopped texting me I asked him whether the 'cat had got his tongues?' That didn't go down to well as you can imagine, according to this guy I had now committed the unpardonable sin & blasphemy against the Holy Ghost. I do get 'em don't I? Tongues are NOT for today & they were a SIGN for unbelieving JEWS (1 Cor 1v22 cf. 1 Cor 14v22 – also see my book (CSBN) page 237 onwards). I don't think I'll be getting a Christmas card this year from this guy. May the Lord deliver us from these effeminate milk-sop Pentecostal 'Christians'. NEVER TRUST ANYONE who says they speak in tongues!

Calvinistic Pastor from Long Crendon Baptist Church in Aylesbury contacts me about my 'tone'!?

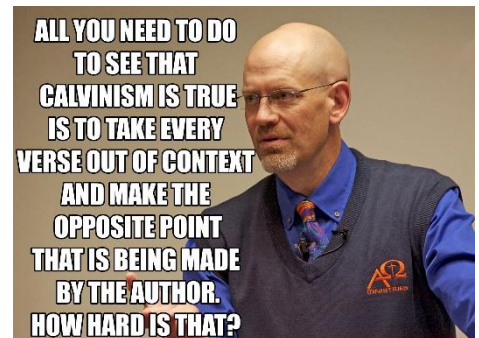

I won't name the idiot, so I don't embarrass him, but one of the 'pastors' (& that's an utter joke to start with) from this church recently contacted me as he was given one of our tracts. He starts off with the usual fake humility laced with such arrogance you wouldn't believe it; & starts ranting on about my tone & how I was all wrong regarding Calvinism blah blah blah, the usual tripe from all modern-day Bible 'correctors', & YES, he IS a Bible corrector, telling us that there are mistakes in God's word. The dipper then spent his whole Saturday replying to my points on the Tft! 'ERRORS of Calvinism' tab, to which I responded, & then he started playing 'ping pong'. Nothing was gained by all this, & after 6 or 7 emails he stated that there are mistakes in the KJV. Once I challenged him on this he ran for the woods & was never seen again. Now imagine being a pastor like this guy – he doesn't have a Final Authority in which to turn, even though his statement of faith says he has (in the originals of course, something none of these 'pastors' have ever seen), therefore he is a LIAR, he cannot rightly divide the word of truth (2 Tim 2v15) so he's teaching ERROR, & to top it off he's a Calvinist which is a terminal disease. This so-called 'pastor' will have the shock of his life when he stands before the Lord Jesus Christ on Judgment Day. He doesn't like my tone yet HE is 'correcting' God's word & that's fine, that's okay with him – this is arrogance PERSONIFIED! No wonder churches today are so sterile & puerile, this one is no better, even worse with leaders like THAT in the pulpit, God help us! This arrogant pastor has got 'sovereignitus' disease, which every Calvinist has. He runs to 'The Greek' at every moment trying to convince us to believe his heresies, yet not knowing that there isn't 'The Greek', & he keeps telling us he reads 'Greek', but doesn't let us know WHICH 'Greek' text he's ever referring to. His emails were a complete joke, his Biblical knowledge very shallow, his application of Scripture dismal, & his tone, well, just fake humility all the way through baby. He is a typical modern day 'pastor' (!!!) without a Bible, telling us that he is right & everyone else is wrong because 'The Greek' says, Calvin says, Owen says, blah blah blah. The guy is an idiot... I.D.I.O.T.! I would stay well clear of this Calvinistic Bible 'correcting' so-called church. Having a look at their Facebook page just shows what kind of church they really are... dressing up, entertaining comedians etc. It's just a social club. I didn't go hard or deep with this Bible 'corrector' as he wouldn't have been able to take it (Heb 5v12-14), after looking at the tosh his church preaches & teaches (& I use that term very loosely), 'deep doctrine' to them would be someone like Nicky 'Dumbbell'. The Rapture can't come quick enough for us Bible Believers, & this church doesn't even believe it! I leave you with three points from his church's statement of faith... God has revealed himself in the Bible, which consists of the Old and New Testaments alone. Every word was (IS according to 2 Tim 3v16) inspired by God through human authors, so that the Bible as originally given is in its entirety the Word of God, without error and fully reliable in fact and doctrine. The Bible alone speaks with final authority and is always sufficient for all matters of belief and practice.

I sent this pastor the following... Your statement of faith is a bit of a joke isn't it... 'without error' – in the originals! Who's seen them? How do you know? You can believe in inspiration copied by sinful men but NOT preservation copied by sinful men. You're 'god' isn't powerful enough to keep his words? You might like to check Ps 12v6+7 out with the KJV sometime. You're a 'pastor' too, man alive, imagine teaching the Bible as a lying Bible 'corrector' (because you DON'T have a PERFECT BOOK anymore, but you tell people that they can trust it!?) neither being able to rightly divide it. I wouldn't like to be in YOUR shoes on Judgment Day standing before the Lord with all that heresy & Bible 'correcting' behind you. James 3v1 My brethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation. Fella, you have a lot to learn indeed... & it starts with humility & submitting to THAT BOOK (if only you knew where & what THAT BOOK is) ... & you have the audacity to question MY tone, when YOU are correcting God's words, how much more arrogant IS THAT! <https://www.timefortruth.co.uk/why-av-only/>

Next up is this point from their statement of faith... Salvation is entirely a work of God's grace and cannot be earned or deserved. It has been accomplished by the Lord Jesus Christ and is offered to all in the gospel. God in his love forgives sinners whom he calls, granting them repentance and faith. All who believe in Christ are justified by faith alone, adopted into the family of God and receive eternal life. (Rom 10v13 destroys this of course, as anyone can get saved. God created NOBODY just to send them to Hell without giving them a chance of going to Heaven. Calvinism is a SATANIC doctrine!) Lastly we have the following from their statement of faith... One day, the Lord Jesus Christ will return in glory. He will raise the dead and judge the world in righteousness. Those who do not know Jesus Christ as their personal Lord and Saviour will be shut off from him forever under his right judgement and just punishment. All those who have followed him will be welcomed into a life of eternal joy in fellowship with God. God will make all things new and will be glorified forever. 'Shut off!???' NO Rapture for the Christian & NO Hell for the sinner! What a milk-sop church Long Crendon Baptist Church is, run by a bunch of Bible denying IDIOTS! Dump the lot of them!

Christ as their personal Lord and Saviour will be shut off from him forever under his right judgement and just punishment. All those who have followed him will be welcomed into a life of eternal joy in fellowship with God. God will make all things new and will be glorified forever. 'Shut off!???' NO Rapture for the Christian & NO Hell for the sinner! What a milk-sop church Long Crendon Baptist Church is, run by a bunch of Bible denying IDIOTS! Dump the lot of them!

Why as a church leader you cannot win!

You certainly cannot please everyone, no matter how large or small your church is. Each week someone is in some sort of mood, or you upset someone because you never asked how their week has been, or you didn't give them the attention they think they deserve, or you haven't contacted them during the week, or you never asked that person 'first', & on & on it goes. Christians are like children, very immature & will fall out with you over the smallest of things, to be honest, they are pathetic! I've had people leave the church because I took 'their tab' off the Tft! website, another couple left because they were convicted by what I had written in Tft! NEWS & they couldn't control their child. I could give you reason after reason, excuse after excuse, of why people leave & why it is always MY fault! It's amazing! Christians are so effeminate that they get offended over such a trivial thing, & that 'one thing' becomes an unsurmountable mountain in their life in which they just can't climb. If I haven't spoken or made contact with someone during the week 'the Tribulation' has started in their life & now there is an atmosphere when they arrive at church. I've had a family leave the church because I never contacted another member to see how they were doing, I kid you not, I get all kinds of 'baby-NUTS' at The Oaks Church. Tft! NEWS is where I let off steam, I say it as it is no matter who it offends. Overall, I am glad these baby-Christians leave, Oaks isn't for them, it's too deep, too manly & too brutally honest for them. Other churches in the local area benefit from 'The Oaks Church', as these people that leave go there instead. They are welcome to these spiritually immature brats. If you stay at Oaks you'll grow, spiritually, & in your character. You'll learn how to deal with people & cope with situations. If you are an attention seeker, you'll never last, neither stay the course, off you'll go to another local church. I'm not here to wet-nurse babies, who should be adults. I haven't the time, neither the interest. I'm here to help build up men & women into Christian soldiers who will fight for the Lord, work for the Lord, & serve Him in every area of their lives. Why do I say all this? Because many pastors get Tft! NEWS & it helps them as they can't say the things I can, because they are beholden to their congregation, as they pay their wages. I am not! So you pastors out there can give a copy of Tft! NEWS to these baby Christians to 'wake & shake' them up, so that they will 'man-up' & support you more, rather than gripe & complain about everything, threatening to leave. If they DO leave you are certainly best without them. I detest 'fake-humility', yet we've had many of these type of Christians come & go here at The Oaks. The Oaks isn't for 'baby-acorns' who refuse to grow up, it's for 'acorns, saplings & fully grown oak trees' to get grounded in the Scriptures. Churches around us are full of egotistical arrogant 'pastors/leaders' who LOVE their positions of authority & love to show-off in the pulpit with eloquence & knowledge, pride is their downfall, but they just can't see it. I'm not like that, I know what a bum I am, & I'm certainly NOT going out to impress anyone. I will teach & preach the King James Bible FROM THE HEART, submitting to the Book & asking the Lord to use me where He can. I seek no glory, recognition or 'gain', I do what I do FOR THE LORD! Many Christians don't like me, & I don't like them, so what? I'm in this position because at present, the Lord wants me here, & I will continue to do the job I'm called to until the Lord moves me elsewhere. Like I have said in previous issues of Tft! NEWS, either get on board & help, or get out of my way, I have a job to do. If you are unhappy, leave, I won't stop you. If you are seeking attention LEAVE! If you think you know best LEAVE, it doesn't bother me a bit. I have a great team around me, & we love THE BOOK God has given us. We have a passion to learn, be challenged & get the Gospel out. Like Ruckman said, "I like to feel uncomfortable at church, I liked to be preached at, so I grow & mature, I like to be challenged by the Scriptures!" If you do, Oaks is for you! If you don't, there are plenty of 'nice' churches within a radius of 20 miles you can try.

Don't come 'belly-aching' to me about your life, if you are NOT living as you should for the Lord!

'Woe is me I'm struggling; I've got family trouble, money trouble, job trouble, health trouble, kid trouble etc.' I get so many Christians complaining about how hard things are, & after asking just a few questions about their spiritual life, their Christian walk, it is obvious that they are NOT living for the Lord at all, & He certainly is NOT in His rightful position in their life. So what do you expect? Why cry-baby? Listen dummy, if you are NOT living for the Lord Jesus Christ & seeking His will in everything you do, what the ___ do you expect? I couldn't even think about what a state I would be in if it wasn't for the Lord. I'm constantly talking to Him & seeking His will. I ask Him to help me in everything, I NEED Him! Of course I still mess up & get stressed out at times, I wander of course, sin & make a total hash of things, but I keep talking to Him & asking Him to help me. Man alive, my life is Jesus Christ, yours should be to. When things go wrong He should be the first one we speak to & seek for help & guidance. I get many an email telling me what a mess people are in, & when challenged about their Christian life they tell me... 'Well I stopped reading the Bible, I don't pray much, I've stopped going to church, I haven't given out a Gospel tract in years...' & on & on it goes. Then they wonder why they are in such a mess, man alive they need a kick up the rear to wake them up. Some of these idiots even start blaming God 'Where is He in my life? Why doesn't He help me?' I get sick & tired of these gutless half-hearted punks. Start living for Jesus Christ in EVERYTHING you do & you'll see a change in your life. Quit whining & start serving the Lord & then I'll have a lot more respect & empathy for you.

Are you using your talent?

Are you gifted in any way? If so, in what? Are you using your talent for the Lord? Many Christians I know have certain strengths, gifts & talents, but they are not using them for the Lord. These gifts just lay dormant & these lazy Christians won't exercise them or use them, but instead go through life wasting them. If the Lord has blessed you in some way, use it for His glory. I know Christians who can write but DON'T, sing but DON'T, plus loads of other stuff, but they don't bother.

GDPR Legislation

Well we had to contact everyone on our database regarding this new legislation. Thank you to all of you who hit the subscribe button. If you didn't, you're OFF our mailing list now. Subscribe again if you want to be put back on.

Signing your own book!?

You think people want your signature do you? You must think very highly of YOURSELF! (Gal 6v3). When Christians write a book & say that they'll sign it for you, KNOW THIS, arrogance & PRIDE is reigning in their hearts & minds. Let the Lord through His word speak... Rom 12v3 For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly... Prov 25v27 It is not good to eat much honey: so for men to search their own glory is not glory. Prov 27v2 Let another man praise thee, and not thine own mouth; a stranger, and not thine own lips. Anyone want me to sign the Battle Notes?

Encouraging email...

Hey John, I received the Christian Soldier's Battle Notes today and I am overjoyed!!!!!! I also liked the other CD's and tracts. My nephew and I have started a bible study at my house on Sunday's. We are going to be using the battle notes starting this Sunday. I have already started to read and look up the verses in my bible and I can't put the battle notes down! We started giving the duplicates of the tracts and the KJV bibles to people who we come into contact with that are receptive. I just want to thank you again for all your support and caring for the new believer and the lost. I feel like a sponge that has been squeezed and is soaking up the knowledge and pure truth of God's word. Thank you and your ministry staff for all that you do. Take care! God bless you all. These kinds of emails spur you on don't they.

Anyone know of a Bible Believing church in this area?

Ormskirk L39 8SB or Magull or Southport or Liverpool? If you do, please let me know as a lady is looking to attend one in this area, thanks.

Another encouraging email to receive...

Hey John, ...You can't imagine how much you and the word of God are impacting my life in such a positive way. Your preaching is helping not only myself, but also my nephew, two friends and even my sister wants to come to the bible study in my home. My nephew and I have been giving out the tracts and coins at different locations to others who are receptive. Again thank you John. God Bless You. Time for Truth! Is committed to reaching lost souls with the Gospel & helping Christians grow in their spiritual walk. Dealing with heretics like Pfenniger, Caldwell, Anderson etc. is a very small part of our ministry.

140 sermons FREE – just ask!

My friend Cristian has recently put together 140 of my sermons onto 5 x MP3 CDs. If you would like a set, FREE OF CHARGE, just let us know & we'll post you them.

The End? Booklet really stirs people up!

We were distributing tracts in Malvern recently & before we even got back to the car we had the following response on email sent to us... You have no right to deliver such an offensive booklet as "The End?". You have no right to intrude in this way upon the suffering of others. I do not impose my beliefs on you and I expect you to desist from imposing your beliefs on me. You have caused distress to our household. 'The End?' booklet certainly gets people thinking. Luke 12v51-53.

You are saved by faith PLUS works during the Tribulation...

Rev 14v13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them. Those who die in the Tribulation have their WORKS follow them, & they are judged for these LATER. Our situation in the Church Age is different, our works go ahead of us & we meet up with them at the Judgment Seat of Christ. Tribulation saints are judged at the Great White Throne in the FUTURE. We are judged during the Tribulation at the Judgement Seat of Christ. There's a difference & the difference is in the Dispensations, remember that.

Repentance...

Luke 13v5 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. Repentance is being sorry for what you ARE – Job 40v4, 42v6, Isa 6v5, Luke 5v8, so you are turning from your unbelief in God as a filthy sinner & turning towards God for salvation, that's it. No works like the Hyper-Dispensationalists teach (Fake-Pfenny, Colic-Caldwell etc.) & neither is calling upon the Lord a work either (Rom 10v13). Repentance & calling upon the Lord is certainly all part of getting saved, it's just these cult-lunatics who think it's a 'work'. Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ. Acts 20v21.

Stephen Hawking Dies

Where is Stephen Hawking now? Well his fans & followers won't like the answer, but truth is truth no matter what. He chose his own path & that was without God, NOW he is a Bible Believer, but it's too late! Ps 139v8 If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there: if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there. He spent his whole life rejecting God & leading others to do the same, now he is reaping what he has sown. A tragic end to a tragic life! Ps 14v1 The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none that doeth good. The LORD looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, and seek God. They are all gone aside, they are all together become filthy: there is none that doeth good, no, not one. Wheelchair or no wheelchair, this man was just another Bible denying Hell deserving sinner who rejected God all his life & told as many others as he could to do the same. If you follow this man, you will end up where he is, in Hell.

Encouraging email...

I still cannot get over the 'Battle Notes' book. I have found out how much I do not know concerning God's word. Great book and I ordered one for my pastor who certainly needs it. Thanks for everything you do for the Lord Jesus Christ. Your brother in the fight, C_____. The Christian Soldier's Battle Notes is really making an impact on many Christian's lives, thank you Lord. One guy has just bought four.

Anyone live around this area & is interested in being involved in a tracting team?

Alan writes... I am interested in getting a group together here in Merseyside/Cheshire to go out tracting once a week. Maybe in your next newsletter you would be kind enough to print my request to see if there are any other TFT! Christians out there that could link up. Ideally target areas around Warrington, Widnes, Wigan, Liverpool and surround. If you are interested please let me know & I'll pass on your details.

Thanks John - Very pleased to hear about Donna - that is good news, but we will keep praying for her of course for a full recovery from the arthritis. My wife Chris has both MS and arthritis as you know, but she's had 2 falls this week with her left leg suddenly giving way, so we'd be very grateful if you could add her to your prayer list occasionally if and when you get chance. Thanks for everything you are doing helping us all make our outreach as effective as possible. Cheers and God bless - Eric

Getting offended!

We all get offended at times in our lives. As you can imagine, I'm always offending someone, just by telling the truth it seems! Well on Friday at church I spoke about getting offended, & here is part of that sermon... Ps 119v165 Great peace have they which love thy law: and nothing shall offend them. You mature as a Christian the deeper you get into the word of God, & not only that, but you are able to cope with people, situations, & being offended much better the more you read & study the Bible – Mark 4v17. There is a peace the word of God brings that nothing else in life does, yet most Christians are unaware of that because they are not reading their Bibles. You will be able to cope with 'being offended' much better if you are a Christian that is deep in the Scriptures... so are you? Or are you a very weak & immature Christian who runs away the moment you are offended? Here are some other great verses on the subject... John 6v61 – many of Jesus' disciples were offended by what He said & no longer wanted to walk with Him (John 6v66). Read 1 Cor 8v13 alongside Rom 14v21 – do you offend others by 'drinking', yet you have decided that as a Christian you would rather drink alcohol & be part of the world & its sin than obey the Scriptures. Does your 'pastor' or 'leader' drink alcohol? Not bothered? James 3v2 – have YOU ever offended anyone & if so what was it over? We all do it don't we? Prov 18v19 A brother offended is harder to be won than a strong city: and their contentions are like the bars of a castle. Man alive, what about this verse! Once you have offended someone, especially these days, you'll find it near impossible to win them over again. Mat 16v23 – if you were Peter would you have been offended by Jesus here? Jesus Himself is an offence to many – Rom 9v33, 1 Pet 2v6-8. The Cross is also an offence to many – Gal 5v11. There are many things that offend us, but it's how you deal with them that shows your spirituality & maturity. If you run away every time you're offended, you're just a very immature Christian. We've had lot's of them come & go at The Oaks Church. Those that stay grow spiritually & mature very quickly. Offended?

NASB Jesus Lies

King James Bible John 7:8-10

“Go ye up unto this feast:
I go not up yet unto this feast;
 for my time is not yet full come.” When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee. But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.

New American Standard Bible Jn. 7:8-10

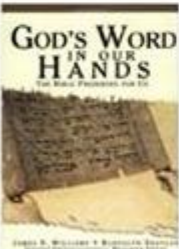

“Go up to the feast yourselves;
I do not go up to this feast because My time has not yet fully come.” Having said these things to them, He stayed in Galilee.
 But when His brothers had gone up to the feast, then He Himself also went up, not publicly, but as if, in secret.

❶ The King James Bible accurately reports that the Lord said he was not going up to the feast YET because he did go up later.

❷ The Jesus of the NASB is telling a “white lie” by saying that he was not going up to the feast at all only to go later.

WHITE LIES

❸ What’s disturbing is that Fundamentalist academics seem to be oblivious to the obvious problem here. Here’s a quote from a Fundamentalist book justifying BOTH Bibles!

“When we use a faithful conservative translation such as the King James Version, New King James Version, the New American Standard Bible, or another version of demonstrated accuracy we can trust our Bible as the word of God. We can be confident that we have God’s Word in our hands.”

Would your Saviour use a “faithful conservative translation” with “demonstrated accuracy” that makes him a liar?

Change just one letter, or one word in the KJV Bible & you are a Bible ‘corrector’ & have NO Final Authority in which to turn to. You have now set yourself above God, as you are able to ‘correct’ His word. Only a mad foolish Biblical illiterate would even try to ‘correct’ God’s word. You should submit to it, read it, study it, rightly divide it, preach, teach & LIVE IT! But do you? If you are using any other Bible other than the King James aka Authorized Version, then you are wasting your time & will never be able to rightly divide the Scriptures. There is so much good stuff available today, showing the errors in all modern day ‘bibles’ you either have to be a stubborn idiot, or a deluded person not to ditch your corrupt version & get God’s word aka the KJV Bible. There is no argument about this, you either have a perfect copy of God’s word or you have a corrupted copy, which is it? If your ‘bible’ has errors in it, how do you know John 3v16 is correct & how do you know you are even saved. Without a Final Authority, you have nothing to trust in & live by. Your opinion counts for nothing as we all differ in our opinions, it’s what God’s word says that counts. It’s such an important subject, yet seldom discussed in churches sadly to say. I don’t know of a Bible believing church in the whole of Worcestershire where the Bible is held up as being perfect, without error. This is tragic, & this is epidemic throughout the UK, & why our country is in such a mess, they have no standard & no absolute authority in which to turn. Because of this, things can only get worse. As Christians we ought to take a stand on this issue, but do we?

Bank Holiday in Hereford City

We spent a few hours in Hereford, a beautiful city, & found a couple of great places to have tea & coffee. While there, we also tracted quite a few houses, which made the journey very worthwhile. On the way back we stopped off in Leominster at an antique shop where we picked up two bedside cabinets, which we needed, at a good price too. We hardly ever buy new furniture as you can get some great deals in second hand shops & oftentimes the older stuff is better quality & well made. It was a great day out & we just pray that the tracts will lead souls to the Lord.

Making the wrong decision...

All through life we are presented with choices & opportunities where we have to make decisions. Sometimes we get things right, many times we get things wrong. By making the wrong decision can have lasting consequences & affect us for the rest of our lives. Oftentimes we are attracted by the dazzling lights, promises of adventure, which turn out to be hollow & the normal mundane, yet I’m amazed at how many Christians get sucked into all this. There is a Scripture that is ignored by 99.99% of Christians yet it is so ‘straight to the point’ & helpful, that it will keep you out of most of the trouble you’ll enter if you only did what it said, do you know what it is? Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. 1 John 2v15. Do you love ‘the world’ too much? Is your Christian walk suffering because you love the world?

Christians who TAKE, TAKE, TAKE but never GIVE!

Why is it that most Christians just continually 'take' & never give, why is that? I personally think that Christians are the stingiest people I have EVER come across, would you agree? When was the last time you gave something to someone & how did it feel? How many of you Christians out there share, give & support those who are doing what YOU should be doing? Do you support a missionary or ministry? If not why not? Are you one of these Christians who just takes all the time & you don't bat an eyelid? Do you know anything about sacrificial GIVING? I thank God that here at Time for Truth! we don't 'rely' on SUPPORT. We are VERY blessed by those of you who do support us, but we certainly don't expect anything from anyone. We work hard to earn money which then gets used for the ministry. That's how it works our end. Anything that comes in from other Christians gets used to buy tracts, Bibles, CDs etc. which then gets shipped to Christians all over the world. We are a very small, efficiently run ministry, & we're so grateful for the Lord's blessing on what we do. There are many Christian ministries struggling to stay afloat, & they need help, perhaps you ought to consider supporting one of these? Isn't it about time you GAVE BACK rather than just keep TAKING? Oh & by the way, how are you supporting your local church? Do you just give enough? Is the Lord happy with your generosity do you think? Do you think of every excuse of why you DON'T give more? What a heart you have! What a lovely motive! If God is blessing you, you bless others, it's as simple as that. Keep it for yourself & you'll see very little blessing in your life. 2 Cor 9v6-15 But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully. Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver. And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work: (As it is written, He hath dispersed abroad; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness remaineth for ever. Now he that ministereth seed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness;) Being enriched in every thing to all bountifulness, which causeth through us thanksgiving to God. For the administration of this service not only supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God; Whiles by the experiment of this ministration they glorify God for your professed subjection unto the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution unto them, and unto all men; And by their prayer for you, which long after you for the exceeding grace of God in you. Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift. If that passage doesn't move you to give more I guess nothing will. There shall be a lot of regrets at the Judgment Seat of Christ I can tell you!

A day in the life of Tft!

Well Dee has been picking & packing like a mad-woman lately, here is just one day's worth of parcels we sent out. The DDC (Dee's Distribution Centre) is running very efficiently & Dee is loving it. It is such an encouragement after coming home from work, getting into the DDC & sending out thousands of tracts, Bibles, books, CD's etc. all over the world. Oftentimes we grab a cuppa-tea, open the DDC, get some music on & get cracking on 'picking & packing' Christian literature. There isn't a week goes by when we're not sending something out to someone. We can get orders coming in from the Tft! web-shop, via email, letters & phone calls. All the time people are ordering our Gospel tracts, books & Bibles, it's really encouraging to see. As you can imagine we get through a lot of boxes, bubble wrap & brown tape!

Are you disillusioned by Christians like I am?

Recently a couple in their early 90's wrote to me requesting tracts, yes you read that correctly, they are in their 90's. The husband has gone through cancer a number of times, now he has Parkinson's disease & cannot walk, but he still gives out tracts & witnesses where he can. His wife has undergone a major operation in the last couple of weeks & wrote to me saying that as soon as she is up & about again she will send me a gift to buy some more tracts. (Needless to say I won't take any money from this couple & will supply them with whatever tracts they want free of charge). They just don't make Christians like this anymore do they. Much of their life was spent in India as missionaries, & even in their old age they are not giving up but instead, they are continuing right to the end, in serving the Lord Jesus Christ. Now you compare these kind of Christians to you & me, I'm not even in the same league. When I think what these YouTube idiots are doing with their lives compared with this couple it makes me sick to my stomach. When I also think about the so-called Christians that come through the Oaks Church, it makes me embarrassed to associate with such pathetic creatures, who fall out over the minutest of things. Where are the real men & women today? Most Christians I know are a joke!

Who can you trust?

Apart from the Lord, can you name just seven people in your life that you can really trust? You probably can't can you? Isn't that so sad? Are you trustworthy? Are you a gossip & a 'revealer of secrets'? What is wrong with us all, why can't we just get on, love each other & help each other through life? Satan knows the answer... Job 2v4 And Satan answered the LORD, and said, Skin for skin, yea, all that a man hath will he give for his life. Our selfish pride is what holds many of us back. Some of the most arrogant spiteful people I know are Christians, even though it ought not to be. Some of the most opinionated self-conceited intolerant abusive people I have ever met, go to church every week. Think about that.

Oaks Church member leaves... 'again'!!!

One-minute God told him to move & come to The Oaks Church, then God told him to move to Scotland, then God told him to move back to The Oaks Church, & now God has told him to leave The Oaks Church! What can I tell you, 'A double ('quadruple') minded man is unstable in all his ways'. James 1v8. When a Christian tells me they are moving to Worcestershire BECAUSE they are coming to help The Oaks Church & get involved in the work, do evangelism around the local area & in the towns, tracting etc. because this is the Lord's will for their lives, I am always cautious & question the MOTIVE of why they are leaving where they are. Eventually the truth will come out! (It did!) Sadly, this couple can't settle anywhere, & lack discipline & self-motivation to get up & get out there & work for the Lord, they don't know what work is to be honest. As usual, they have potential but don't use it, & will regret this when standing face to face with the Lord at the Judgment Seat of Christ. This guy is a talker & a dreamer, like so many Christians today who do not do as THE BOOK says. I'm sick of talkers, dreamers, fakes, flakes, & effeminate Christians who will leave church because of a 'frosty atmosphere' (I kid you not) or something so minor & petty, it beggars belief. Rather than repent of their laziness, lack of commitment, dishonesty etc. they just blame me (as usual) for what goes wrong & leave. This happens a lot in churches, & to be brutally honest, like I have said previously, you are better off without this type of shallow, lazy, non-committed Christian. The church up the road benefits greatly from Christians who leave The Oaks Church as they usually land up there, a right band of limp wristed 'soldiers' if ever there was a bunch. The Oaks Church is a church that doesn't suffer fools gladly. If you want to be involved in everything that goes on, you'll thrive, if you just want to be on the fringe, eventually you will leave. I have never in my entire life seen so many Christians who are so immature & childish, Christians who get offended over the smallest of things & leave because they didn't get the attention they feel they deserve. Most churches today, & most Christians today, are just gutless cowards who achieve very little for the Lord. Church means nothing to them, the Bible very little, & the Lord not much. They just want to do what they want to do, & their whole lives revolve around their selfish will rather than the Lord's. I am so sick & fed up with this kind of modern-day Christianity, & this kind of modern-day Christian. I could easily close The Oaks Church because of how pathetic Christians are & their lack of commitment, & just enjoy studying my Bible, producing sermons on CD, reaching the lost, & running the ministry & business from home, but until the Lord directs me to, I shall keep it open as a testimony to Him; a place where people can come & hear the word of God (KJV) preached & taught. When I look back at the kind of people that attend church then leave over something so small, it reminds me again, that very few real men will ever set foot in a church let alone stay there. Most 'men' I know who attend church are so effeminate you have to question as to whether you shake hands or kiss them when they leave! The guy who I am talking about here is also convicted by our friend up there in Scotland, Christopher, who is ON FIRE for the Lord after recently getting saved. He is actively involved in outreach, evangelism & tracting, while holding down a full-time job. He's even printing his own Tft! tracts! There's a difference between John Wayne & Mr Bean... but it's the 'Mr Bean's' that seem to turn up in the churches! Most Christians really are pathetic.

Dear Brother Davis, and Tft brethren, just a note to say thanks for all you are doing to win souls and preach the word of God. I appreciate the materials you have sent me in the past; they have been a true blessing. It is heartening to know that, although Dr. Ruckman is no longer with us "he being dead yet speaketh" (Heb 11:4), your efforts to reach the UK (and the world) will no doubt bear fruit at the Judgement Seat of Christ. No need to reply to me. Just wanted to encourage you. Because of Calvary, Pastor Mike Schreib, PBI 1993, Bible Baptist Church International (California)

Time for Truth! NEWS

I have said several times, you either love this newsletter or you HATE it. Those that hate it, are mainly the effeminate kind of Christians that leave a church at the drop of a hat, they get so easily offended that they can't stay anywhere neither come under any kind of authority. This type of Christian achieves very little for the Lord because their PRIDE kills any 'good' & they become narcissistic, it happens all the time. I've had hundreds of people over the years, either email, write or call me, telling me that they are upset over something I've said or written & they want to come off the mailing list. Don't get me wrong, I've had thousands of encouraging letters & emails too. In today's 'modern world', you can't rock-the-boat, neither upset or offend anyone, they have even made it 'Law' in the UK, how mad is that. Just by speaking out, you can go to prison, look at what they have done to Tommy Robinson recently. You can imagine all the negativity I receive by putting out something like Tft! NEWS in the 21st Century, I'm a dying breed I guess. I'm not a brave man, I just seek the truth & try to speak the truth no matter what, or who it offends. I've lost many along the way, but I will not compromise because a few people get offended. You can either come off the mailing list or stop reading it... but you WILL keep reading it won't you!

Prayer request from Stu Harvey...

Please pray for Stu's daughter Jenna who has recently undergone surgery. Please pray she makes a full recovery.

Come on YouTube close this Idiot down!

Steven AnderSNAKE says that he thinks YouTube will be deleting his channel soon & so he has asked Christians to download his videos & upload them onto their own channels etc. Listen, I'm with YouTube!!! It would be brilliant if YouTube closed him down & banned this hateful idiot. Without YouTube he hasn't got an audience or platform to 'preach' his heresies. I think this guy is one of the biggest cretins I've ever come across, & he's totally useless as a so-called Bible 'teacher'. How anyone can follow him or even subscribe to his channel just amazes me, they must be bigger idiots than he is, which I didn't think was possible. Come on YouTube, CLOSE HIM DOWN!

Tft! launches in the USA!

Over 12,000 people have visited the Tft! website from the USA & we supply a lot of books, sermon CDs & Bibles to the US. We don't supply a huge amount of tracts though, due to the shipping costs, so we thought it would be a great idea if someone represented us over there, & that someone is none other than our giant of a friend from the military, Jacob Phillips. He is now printing our tracts in the USA & distributing them from there. If you would like to make contact with him, support & partner with him, or just send Jacob an email of encouragement please do so on jacob@timefortruth.co.uk – it would be great if some of you who live in the USA would join forces with Jacob & help him in this ministry of tract production & distribution. Jacob will be giving us regular reports & updates of what tracts he's printing & how many etc. We hope in time, when he is established, he'll be able to start printing our books & duplicating our CD sermons too. Jacob is a very sound King James Bible Believing Christian who we highly recommend. He is also having his own tab on our Tft! UK website, a section on our Tft! web-shop as well as setting up his own Tft! USA website. Cristian (the Tft! I.T. Dept!), Pete (our UK printer) & Dee (DDC Director!) will also be working closely with Jacob to give him any help & support he needs. So welcome to Time for Truth! USA, we hope & pray that this will be a great adventure for Jacob & his family as it is for us here in England. We are very thankful to the Lord for where He has taken our ministry & how it has grown over the years. To think that it started from our bedroom, where we printed our first tract on a second-hand laser printer with half a toner, to what it is now, is incredible, thank you Lord Jesus. We haven't kept count of how many tracts we have shipped all over the world & how many letters, cards & emails we have received back as a result. We are just very thankful to the Lord that He has allowed us to have this ministry & blessed us so much through it. We have been in touch with so many amazing Christians. For those of you who would like to financially support Jacob, please contact him direct. The more money he receives, the more tracts he can print. He is starting off very small, so he would appreciate any help you could give him.

Life is good, very good, thank you Lord... but is it right?

What do I know about hardship & affliction compared to some Christians & what they go through? When I read about what people like John Wesley went through or William Tyndale, I don't know how they even coped in their situations. They lived for the Lord in everything, without having much money or possessions, & they just trusted the Lord from day to day. Are you like that? I'm 'bush-league' in comparison. When I look at my own life & what I have achieved for the Lord, I'm embarrassed. As each day goes by I'm always thinking, praying, what more can I do, how can I help others, what is my next step. Suddenly a door may open & then I must weigh it up as to whether it is the Lord's will or not. What is the point of living outside of God's will, yet most Christians do don't they? Do you? Are you? What is the point of living for your selfish pride, your way instead of God's way, what will that achieve, how will that profit you on Judgment Day? Too many Christians are living for the world, walking the course of the world & seeking glory for themselves rather than opening their lives up for the Lord to use. I hear of every excuse as to why Christians are not doing what they should be doing. As they say, it will only end up in tears I'm afraid... & there will be much weeping on that day I can tell you. What a wasted life most people live, how sad, how utterly tragic, yet the majority couldn't care less.

What is the biggest problem in your life at this moment?

Is it a certain sin, your attitude & character, a breakdown in a relationship, your job, money problem etc? What are you doing to solve it? Where does the Lord really fit in to this problem? How would He deal with it if you gave it to Him totally? Oftentimes we carry loads that are so heavy, yet we don't help ourselves, we try to work it out without seeking guidance from the Lord. How many times have you made a mistake but still you won't listen. Isn't it amazing how we see things from only our point of view without even attempting to see it from someone else's? Why is that? Stubbornness & pride? Remember this, you can think, believe & be totally convinced that you are right, yet you could be 100% wrong! Think about that the next time a problem arises & you are trying to deal with it yourself – Prov 3v5+7.

Convicted?

When you are under 'conviction' how do you deal with it? Do you run & hide? Do you shut yourself off from people, & leave church? Do you talk 'yourself' into thinking you are right & everyone else is wrong? Do you blank it out, convince yourself that you're in the Lord's will no matter where you go or what happens? Self-delusion is very dangerous!

Emailing Banksy

Remember this artwork in Cheltenham which Banksy did? We featured it in a previous issue of Tft! NEWS with Donna standing next to the mural. Well recently I emailed Banksy & sent him a Gospel message, let's see what happens. He's a very talented artist but I certainly wouldn't agree with a lot of what he promotes & protests against. I've never been one who really understands art, especially modern-day stuff. One painting I did find quite profound was the one of the scapegoat pictured here. You can view it in the museum in Port Sunlight Cheshire. Read Lev 16. I love to see talented painters & artists, but I just don't appreciate art that costs millions & you can't even fathom out what it is... Hancock & 'The Rebel'!!!

Do you understand Acts 2v38 properly?

First let us read Rom 3v25 Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; 'Propitiation' occurs 3x in Scripture – 1 John 2v2, 1 John 4v10 & here. In each case it is Jesus Christ Himself who satisfies the demands of God (Read Rom 3v25-31). The Father twice declared that He was 'well pleased' with His Son (Mat 3v17 & 17v5), read also Isa 53v10+11. You appropriate that 'satisfaction' when you trust in His Blood Atonement for you. Without Christ you are on death row awaiting execution – John 3v18+36. Now Rom 3v25 is essential for understanding Acts 2v38. Note the wording in both... 'remission of sins'. Most Christians interpret this to mean... 'in order to get the forgiveness of sins', but this is not what it means. 'For the remission of sins' occurs in the ministry of John the Baptist (Luke 3v3 & note 'baptism of repentance FOR...'); 'For the remission of sins' occurs at the Last Supper where Jesus says – Mat 26v28 (read it). It also occurs in Acts 2v38. Back to Rom 3v25 & note... 'To declare his righteousness FOR THE REMISSION OF SINS THAT ARE PAST'. What sins are those? Those are the sins He forgave from Gen 3 to Rom 3. How do you know that? By the next phrase... 'Through the forbearance of God'. Even though not one sin in the Old Testament was ever 'taken away' (Heb 10v4), or 'cleared' (Exo 34v7), the Lord put up with those sinners & forgave their sins when they did what He asked them to do, until such a time when the one perfect, effectual sacrifice could be made & His righteousness could be applied to all those forgiven sins to REMOVE them. It has to do with a period of time (Rom 3v26), not the time of a man's life. So, 'for the remission of sins' means BECAUSE THE SINS OF THE PAST HAVE ALREADY BEEN FORGIVEN. Mat 26v28 is a direct cross-reference to Rom 3v25! In the case of John the Baptist, the people are showing by their baptism that they have already repented & had their sins forgiven. They were then to leave the waters of baptism & do works that matched their repentance. In Acts 2v38, four separate things were taking place...

- 1) They were to repent of the sin of crucifying Jesus Christ
- 2) They were to be baptised to show that they had repented
- 3) Their sins had already been forgiven when they repented - just like in the case of John the Baptist
- 4) If they did that, THEN they would receive the Holy Spirit

Let's look at one more passage showing that these PAST SINS were sins forgiven under the Old Testament - Heb 9v22. The blood here is NOT Christ's Blood, it was the blood shed at the brazen altar in the tabernacle (Read Heb 9v18-22). It was the blood of calves & goats – Heb 9v19. In the Old Testament under the Law, a man could have his sins 'forgiven' if he made the proper sacrifice, but the sins were NOT 'taken away' - Heb 10v4. So when Christ dies on the Cross, His Blood does more than just 'forgive', it 'redeems' (Col 1v14) the blood shed in the OT, & clears away the sin that has already been forgiven – Heb 9v15+26 – read Heb 10v4+11, 1 Pet 1v18+19, Exod 34v7. Redemption is NOT forgiveness & forgiveness is NOT redemption – Col 1v14 (cf. NIV). What we have is the Blood atonement of Christ; it is completed redemption, NOT JUST the forgiveness of sins. The Blood of Christ accomplishes BOTH operations.

Amazing – the word 'atonement', meaning the reconciliation of God & mankind through the death of Jesus Christ, occurs 70 times, 69 times in the OT & ONLY ONCE in the NT – Rom 5v10+11.

Heb 9v28 So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation.

1 Pet 3v18 For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit:

Heb 10v12 But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God;

In the OT the sheep died for the shepherd, in the NT the Shepherd dies for the sheep!

What are you running away from & why? What is stopping you from facing up to your poor decisions, PRIDE?
Are you really where God wants you to be at present? Are you at peace? If not... you know why!

Pastor's Mike Schreib & Gene Kim from Bible Baptist Church International have a YouTube channel which I think is one of the best on the internet. Their preaching is very sound & very balanced unlike most other KJV preachers & teachers. Why I also highly recommend them is because they are both humble, & humility is one thing I seldom see among those who know their Bibles, & these two brothers KNOW their Bibles! I don't recommend a lot of preachers & teachers because there are problems with many of them (arrogance for a start), & they may lead you astray. Pastor's Mike & Gene will only lead you deeper into the Scriptures & deeper in your Christian walk. Both men have read most if not all of Ruckman's material so they are EXCELLENT at rightly dividing the Scriptures. Check them out by following the links below...

Putting your faith in 'men'...

Recently I spoke to a guy who had stopped going to church because he lost faith in the pastor. Man alive, we'd all stop going to church for that reason wouldn't we? If we are putting our faith & trust in fallible men rather than the infallible God, you are wasting your time. I will let you down & you will let me down. Keith Green sang 'Even the best bound to fall'. How often have you been disappointed by those you held in high esteem? We all have. I can't even trust myself, let alone someone else - The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? Jer 17v9. Listen, take note, trust NO ONE except the Lord Jesus Christ & the King James Bible. Your pastor will fail you, your parents will fail you, your best friends will fail you... everyone will let you down at some point, but that is no reason to quit on the Lord, quit reading your Bible & walk away from God. Don't quit going to church just because someone disappoints you there, even if it's the pastor. Rise above that & keep looking to the Lord & pray for those that fall along the way, DON'T BURY THEM, as we can all fall, make mistakes & get off the beaten track at times. You know it & I know it, it happens, because we are still living in this sinful flesh; this carnal, materialistic, selfish, self-absorbent, 'narcissistic', prideful body. Read Romans chapter seven for some enlightenment. Like Job, just because everyone else around me is falling, doesn't mean I will turn my back upon the Lord who saved me, it's not His fault. He has done nothing wrong, so why walk away from Him? It doesn't make sense. We all backslide at times in our lives, your pastor does, your favourite preacher does... YOU DO! But why take it out on the Lord & leave Him? That doesn't make sense. You should do everything you can to stay as close to Jesus Christ as possible, no matter who fails you, let's you down & disappoints you, He will NEVER leave you nor forsake you. (Heb 13v5). The first thing I think when someone tells me they left God, 'Christianity', stopped reading their Bible, got rid of their Christian books & ran back to the world, is this, 'You didn't have much of a relationship with the Lord did you?' I've sinned thousands of times since being saved, I hate it, still do, but I will not stop trying to live for the Lord in everything I do. I have seen hundreds of Christians give up on God & walk away, I will NEVER do that, it's not His fault for my sinful life, my errors, my mistakes. I don't put my faith in people anymore, I know people. I used to, I used to think the pastor was 'the man', & would never fail, I soon learned he was just as susceptible to the world, the flesh & the Devil as I was, more so at times. I was sad when I heard that man say he gave up his faith because of the minister's sin. I told him NOT to trust men, only God. I don't want to sin & let anyone down, but I do, & I will. You can nail me to the floor & bury me, but don't you dare blame anything on the Lord, He's NEVER to blame, He's perfect, so why turn your back upon Him? You need to man-up, grow-up & keep focused on Jesus Christ, no matter what mistakes you or I make. So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her. John 8v7. For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. Heb 4v15. Quite a contrast don't you think?!

This 'Graphic' made me smile!

Add these three up & what do you get? Confusion all round! All three are just arrogant clowns seeking to be somebody & wanting to be 'worshipped' like little 'gods'. Anderson is so far off base regarding doctrine he's an absolute joke & no real Bible Believer takes him seriously, he knows very little Scripture & certainly cannot rightly divide the word of God. Breaker who has a 'little potential' because Ruckman taught him all he knows, is just an overinflated-chicken-eatin-windbag who wants a foot in both the Hyper-Diaper camp & the Bible Believing camp because he wants 'the money' & some sort of prestige. Funny-Pfenniger is one arrogant nut who keeps saying 'Wuckman' & 'That's the Gas-bill'. He is a self-deluded-looney-tune-isolated-fool who has no interest in reaching sinners with the Gospel (Gas-bill). He is an armchair 'Christian' who will never pass out a Gospel tract or get out there where sinners are, trying to reach them, he's a frightened 'Wabbit'. These three paranoid numbskulls are three of the biggest idiots you'll ever come across on YouTube. If you listen to them you're just wasting the precious time that God has given you. Get out there in the real world & reach some lost sinners with the Gospel. Living on YouTube is NOT serving the Lord Jesus Christ.

A LooneyTunes PRO.D

This is just one screenshot of Hyper-Diaper-eddy's YouTube channel. Count how many videos he has here... 30. Guess how many of them are about Bryan Denlinger... 30. Do you think he has some sort of fascination & obsession with Bryan? Hour upon hour he just produces videos about Bryan. He doesn't do anything else in life except sit in front of his camera producing videos about Bryan Denlinger. He also seems very narcissistic, doesn't he? Ghostly-Ed doesn't tract, preach or teach, witness, or produce any fruit whatsoever for the Lord, he just loves the sound of his own voice "That's the gas-bill, that's the gas-bill". Isn't it amazing how some 'Christians' get caught up in the rut of Satan's work which is just attacking the Body of Christ all the time, without trying to reach even one lost soul for the Lord Jesus. It is certainly true that this century, has produced some of the most effeminate, immature & non-productive Christians who have ever set foot on planet earth.

Two very encouraging emails from the other side of the world.

Hi brother John, I live in Australia, and have no church to go to, they are all circus churches :( I want to be a good steward with my money, and will NOT give it to those who corrupt the words of God. I listened every week to Pete Ruckman's ISS Lessons; but now he is with the Lord, and God has lead me to you. I consider you now my Pastor, and would like to be a member of your church .. internationally :). Here is my weekly offering mate. I would like to support you more, but I only have a part-time job .. though I'm looking for a permanent one. May the Lord Jesus Christ richly bless you, your family and ministry. In Christ Jesus brother P_____ . How about that!

We're certainly NOT after this guy's money & I told him so. We have sent him four parcels with all kinds of material in, & hundreds of CD sermons to help him grow in his Christian walk. Emails like these blow my mind & I count it such an honour, privilege, & responsibility towards God's children such as these.

*Dear John, My name is J_____, I'm a 31 year old Australian and I've been saved for a number of years now and only recently discovered that one of my childhood heroes, Steve McQueen, was saved near the end of his life! The impossibility, from a human perspective, of a man like Steve receiving Christ and being saved makes his redemption a certainty in my opinion, so I've been interested in hearing about Steve's testimony as much as is available. I came across your website, Time for Truth, and saw that you have a link to an audio file of Steve talking about his life after conversion but I can't seem to get it to work unfortunately. Is the audio still available? Thanks for your time! Grace to you, J_____, Thanks very much for the pics and info John! If you would be willing to send me a copy of the audio that would be much appreciated John, thank you. Also, would you please send me a copy of your own personal testimony tract, The Son I Never Was, as well? Thanks again, allow me to make a donation to your PayPal account first: Again, such an encouraging email to receive. We have also sent this guy four packages including a few of Steve McQueen's testimony CDs plus hundreds of sermons, a couple of books & some tracts.

Remember, a pallet of 10,000 tracts ('Is there life after death?') went to Australia a few years ago, & since then over 2,000 people from this country have visited us on our website & we've received many letters & emails too.

Would you like a Christian KJV laptray or 'laptop' laptray?

Do you use a laptray at home? We can now offer a KJV laptray, (41x32cm) OR, something totally unique, found nowhere else, a KJV 'laptop' laptray. The Laptray reads... I am a King James Bible Believing Christian. I thank the Lord Jesus Christ for each day of life & for every meal He gives me. Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God. 1 Corinthians 10v31 ...that in all things he might have the preeminence. Colossians 1v18. If you would like the wording changed just let me know. We can print anything on it. They are £24.99 each & can be purchased on our Time for Truth! Shop. The laptop-laptray (56x32cm) is £29.99. If you like to 'work on your lap', writing letters, reading your Bible, studying, working on your computer, eating etc. then this product is ideal.

Cambridge – The heart of academia

We spent two days on business in Cambridge & therefore stayed overnight in a b&b. During the evening we went to an Italian restaurant after going for a brief drive around the city dodging all the university students on bicycles in the meantime. It's a fascinating place with some amazing architecture. In the morning we awoke early & went to a very trendy café called 'Espresso Library' where we had breakfast, needless to say we left tracts at both places. It was really interesting watching all the students & lecturers coming in for their coffee & sour dough toast, talking about the day ahead of them. It all made me think again how futile life is, no matter how clever you are, without the Lord. Some of the cleverest people in the world are here, & yet the majority of them have been educated OUT of believing in God, what tragic consequences they face. Rom 1v22 Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, Jer 10v14 Every man is brutish in his knowledge: every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them. There is no breath in any of the false gods these intellectuals follow, yet they have been blinded by the false premise that education, the pursuit of knowledge, all through evolution, will lead them to a higher plane... whatever that is. When these highly intellectual people hit their 70's & 80's I wonder when they think back, what they feel. I believe that most people are dishonest & self-deluded in their thinking. They dismiss & put out of their mind any thought that they could be wrong & God is real, so they will do all they can to believe the lies they have been told & promote themselves. A stark reality faces all these 'clever-clogs' at the end, but sadly, it will be too late for them then. Where are the Bible Believers in Cambridge? Ps 10v4 The wicked, through the pride of his countenance, will not seek after God: God is not in all his thoughts. Ps 14v1-3 The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none that doeth good. The LORD looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, and seek God. They are all gone aside, they are all together become filthy: there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

Encouraging each other...

Hi brother John, Didn't expect you to reply, and I also wasn't expecting you to send me anything. The Lord Jesus Christ died for me, paid for my dirty sins, saved me from Hell which I deserve, and gave me eternal life as a free gift ... How can I not feel obligated to support his faithful workmen who are still standing for the truth, and holding fast to his pure words? I really don't think you know just how rare you are in the world mate, and that is NOT flattery, I'm just stating a fact. Come over here and try and find a church and preacher who doesn't compromise for membership numbers and tinkle of coins in the plate. I hope your congregation realize what they have, because I certainly do! I thank my Lord that he lead me to Pete (Ruckman). A real man, that spoke to you as a man. He never wavered in his teaching once all his life. I'm looking forward to embracing him in Heaven, and to thank him personally for grounding me in God's precious words. I just finished listening to your teaching on Galatians. My flesh found it very uncomfortable and didn't like it at all .... Praise the Lord! Good work mate, keep 'em coming! And compromise for NO MAN!!! Deuteronomy 31:6. Over eight years here at The Oaks Church, we have had 300 people come & go, why? Is it because of the teaching & preaching & that they can't stand the truth? Is it because the men are so effeminate that one little spark of friction & they run to the woods? Is it me, & if so 'how' do I drive so many people away... I'm nowhere near 6'. The teaching at a church can be good, yet baby-Christians will still leave when they get upset or the atmosphere is 'frosty'... I kid you not. That is why most Christians achieve hardly anything in their life for the Lord. One minute our tracts are 'the best you can get', next they're dumped, all because of immaturity.

Is it worth it?

As I sat in my study recently I could hear the clock ticking, each second passing was the same for everyone around the world. We are all governed by time, & there is nothing we can do about it, we can't slow it down or stop it, we can just use it as wisely as we can. James 4v14 Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away. Mat 6v25 Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment? We put so much emphasis & effort into things that don't really matter that much don't we. When you weigh it all up & look back at what you have done with the time you've been given, was it all worth it? Whatever you are involved in right now at this stage of your life, is it worth it? What are you getting out of life? Are you making new friends & having an impact on them? Are you starting up a business, changing jobs, trying to achieve something so you feel worthy? You're putting time & effort into lots of different things, are some things just a waste of time but you're too proud to admit it & therefore stop it? Is what you are doing profitable or are you just drifting & hoping? What is your goal, what do you want to get out of this life? Many people go through life just trying to impress other people with their ability, qualifications, achievements, money, possessions, houses, cars etc. They get some sort of kick out of it. I can't imagine the Lord being happy with that kind of attitude, can you? So, I ask again, 'Is what you are doing worth it?' Do you need to change direction in life, quit following your own selfish will? We put so much emphasis on things that don't really matter. Many Christians I know are just dreamers, they don't really achieve much for the Lord but talk as if they do or are going to. They just drift from place to place, not settling down, not grounded in the work of the Lord. This kind of nomadic Christian can't make friends, unless it's on their own terms only, hence they just wander from place to place, church to church. Is it worth it? Isn't it about time they sorted themselves out with the Lord & settled down. With time going so quickly, it should be our priority to make sure we are growing spiritually, deeper in the Scriptures & serving the Lord in everything with all our hearts.

Weep now maybe... but joy is coming! Are you making wrong decisions?

...weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning. Ps 30v5. There are millions of people suffering all around the world, from war-torn countries to those who are laying in hospital clinging on to life. Multitudes are walking around in pain today with all kinds of ailments & problems, & all of us go through many lingering hardships throughout our lives, some that never seem to go away. So WHEN does the 'joy in the morning' actually come? Again, if you don't read the Scriptures Dispensationally you'll never understand them. The context is like Paul's sufferings... Rom 8v18 For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. The 'sufferings of this present time', & 2 Cor 4v17 For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory. HEAVEN is 'the morning'; The Rapture is 'the morning'; The Second Coming is 'the morning' – Mal 4v2 (arise), Ps 17v15 (when I awake) – David said he will be satisfied with God's likeness when he 'awakes', that is 'the morning'. We all suffer in different ways, at different times. Some of our suffering, maybe much, is self-inflicted, we do it to ourselves by poor choices. You have very few friends? Why? Because it's YOU! You keep running away from people, churches etc. why? Because YOU think YOU are right all the time. Marry the wrong girl/guy & they'll drag you AWAY FROM THE LORD! There are many factors as to WHY you are suffering. You smoke all your life & get cancer at the end? What do you expect? Joy is coming... but you may not see any of it here because of the choices & wrong decisions YOU make! The Rapture will end all our sufferings here on earth praise God... but we're still here at present aren't we.

Time for Truth! Highly recommends this book

Preview - HISTORICAL PRINCIPALS IN INTERPRETATION - Those who allegorize the Bible really don't care what the context of passages are – as long as they can use them to their benefit. Sincere and honest believers will ask who is speaking when reading a passage. Just because a quotation comes from the Bible doesn't mean what is said in that quotation is right or even good. For instance, in the book of Ecclesiastes, the author is a man "under the sun" (Ecclesiastes 1:3, 9, 14 etc.), and it is written from that viewpoint. So, when Solomon says, "There is nothing better for a man, than that he should eat and drink, and that he should make his soul enjoy good in his labour" (Ecclesiastes 2:24), that doesn't mean you should quit going to church so you can stay home and stuff yourself. Likewise, when he says, "All go unto one place; all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again" (Ecclesiastes 3:20), he's not giving a doctrinal statement on life after death. You must be careful when reading the Bible, because even some of Satan's words are recorded in Scripture, but you would be a fool to follow them as instructions. The context of a word or phrase in Scripture is so very important because the context lays the foundation upon which that phrase is built. Just because a word or phrase is contained in Scripture does not validate it to be true. The words of Gamaliel sound good: "if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it" (Acts 5:39), but are they true? The Roman Catholic Church hasn't been overthrown yet, so is it of God? What about Islam or Mormonism? When the context of that phrase in Acts 5:39 is considered, it is clear that Gamaliel was an unbelieving Pharisee and wasn't speaking authoritatively for God at all! We know that God is the author of the Bible and that the Bible is intended for man, but when we deal with the specifics of Bible passages, we must be careful. The entire Bible was written for us, but not all of the Bible was written directly to us! This concept is particularly helpful while reading passages like Acts chapter two, where a distinctly Jewish message is preached to a Jewish audience. The requirement of water baptism as a prerequisite for getting the Holy Ghost (Acts 2:38) should be a "red flag" for anyone today reading the passage. Attempting to use verse 39 as proof that verse 38 should be applied to us is double jeopardy because verse 39 is actually an Old Testament quotation from Daniel 9:7 – a reference to the Jews of the dispersion, not Gentiles. It is also important to understand that many things referred to in the Bible are purely a part of historical culture and are not commands for Christians today – some things are doctrine and other things are historical culture. For example, many Primitive Baptist churches practice foot washing, which typically "takes place after communion," because they claim it is an ordinance for the church and should be observed based on John 13:14 where Jesus washed the disciples' feet. Is foot washing an ordinance for local churches or just a part of the culture during the time of Christ? First, notice in John's Gospel that the Lord is not in a local church setting like you find today; He is "in first century Palestine, where people walked long distances in sandals and where roads were dusty." In the culture of Christ's day, the host typically washed the feet of his guests. The next thing to listen for is the sound of crickets, because the rest of the Bible is silent on this topic. You will not find foot washing in the Acts of the Apostles or commanded in any of Paul's epistles. Finally, we must admit that foot washing merely cleans feet and isn't a picture of the death, burial, and resurrection of Christ like baptism (1 Peter 3:21), and neither does it commemorate Jesus's death, burial and resurrection like the Lord's Supper does (1 Corinthians 11). Foot washing then, isn't an ordinance, nor does it commemorate anything but a cultural practice. If you visit a church that observes foot washing and they want you to "unloose," just tell them to "pucker up" because holy kisses were also part of the culture of the day (Romans 16:16; 1 Corinthians 16:20, etc.)! Formerly called "The Bible Believer's Guide to Dispensationalism".

John William Tyndale in training for the Ministry

Who are you training up for the ministry?

Prov 22v6 Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it. Eph 6v4 And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. 2 Tim 3v15 And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. Prov 22v15 Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child; but the rod of correction shall drive it far from him. Prov 23v13 Withhold not correction from the child: for if thou beatest him with the rod, he shall not die.

Regarding 'ministry' - Read Col 4v17, 1 Tim 1v12, 2 Tim 4v5+11 – what's your ministry?

Are you hoping your son or daughter will enter the ministry, or would you rather they served the flesh & the world? Some parents would rather see their son or daughter get a 'good job' rather than enter the mission field, is this you?

Article by Betsy Parker

I once told someone I like to write, to put pencil to paper, not that I like writing articles or books etc., but things like envelopes, lists, notes in my notebook, and I enjoy writing letters to friends not that I have much to say these days. Email is so much quicker and as we aren't near a post box and only get to one once or twice a week. Birthday cards get posted early usually if they are not to be late. In consequence I've landed up writing another article for the Tft newsletter. I've chosen the title "Thoughts of a lady in her 80s"... A few thoughts then. All quotes from the Bible are from the Authorized King James. British Israelites say England is Ephraim. We note that Ephraim and Dan are missing from the 12 tribes in Revelation 7. The reason is connected with Hosea 4:17 and Deuteronomy 29:18-20 and Dan in Genesis 30:6. Both are blotted out because of idolatry. It figures that B.I. are right as we are now a very corrupt society in Government, morals, lawlessness etc. Our country has gone to pot I don't know how much longer the Lord is going to put up with the evil deeds of this country but He is long suffering. The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. 2 Peter 3:9 It can of course get worse before the Lord comes in the air for His people. I believe those things which are "worse" are happening behind the scenes already and like sodomy will come to light and become the normal way of life. Acts made legal. But I don't dwell on these things too much, but pray, as with the Lords help I can endure to my end. This country is shot through and those in authority have no excuse they were brought up in a more or less Christian country and indeed a lot of members of Parliament attend church services. I doubt if they hear the gospel though or if they read the word of God (Authorized 1611 King James Bible). Satan has had his way in that the majority of religious "Christians" now read a perversion, I doubt very much if they are believers but only God knows and I often ask myself if I show by my way of life and speech that I am a Christian/believer. It would be a start if the Government would acknowledge Jerusalem as the capital of Israel, the Lord may bless us a little, as we know by Scripture that it is. Going to church doesn't mean a thing unless you believe in the death, burial, and resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ, that He shed His blood to wash away our sins. My sister attends church weekly but she believes if one loves and is forgiving to others you can get to heaven. I am so thankful there is an A.V. church in our town, and also thankful that my husband is now saved, it makes life much better, and we go to church together most Sunday afternoons to hear a different preacher each week on the gospel, and stay afterwards for biscuits and fellowship which Tony seems to enjoy. Because of his physical disability he is unable to sit or stand for long and the gospel service is just about the right length. If one vows a vow when unsaved is it accountable when they are saved. Galatians 6:7 says Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. In Psalm 6:5 it says For in death there is no remembrance of thee: in the grave who shall give thee thanks? But what about the rich man in Luke 16? In 1 John 3:1, and in other places, in the margin of the AV sons of God is changed into children of God. None of my Bibles have it in the margin (I have quite a few of them). Dr Peter Ruckman speaks of it and in other places in his notes but he says it should read sons of God. I don't take my PR study Bible to church as it is too heavy and print too small. I think the translators were far seeing in that we are all male/sons in heaven, we are like Jesus Christ and we shall see Him as He is (33 1/2 year old male) Also we are like the angels in heaven. Angels are all male, not one is mentioned in Scripture as being female. I am glad to be called a son, they get the inheritance. (I know that some daughters in Scripture did as well) Hebrews 10:25. In the very early days the Christians gathered together wherever it was convenient, they did not have a special building, they assembled together in a house, barn or field etc., to worship Jesus Christ their Saviour and God their Father. All baptised believers, to read the Scriptures (O.T.) and learn and sing hymns, Psalms and spiritual songs. There were no unbelievers there. Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel? 2 Corinthians 6:14,15 They were encouraged to gather together for encouragement and inspiration etc. Assembling of Bible believers – born again and baptised. There were no unsaved there. They came together to remember Jesus Christ and took the Lord's supper 1 Corinthians 11, as instituted by the Lord Himself. These kinds of saints continued throughout history, a remnant in spite of the Roman church, and later the Protestants. Hebrews was written for the Jews and was probably for them during the tribulation. I guess in time these fractions of Christians world wide decided they should meet in large purpose built buildings. Also the splinter churches from the Apostolic age set up denominations. Each denomination had its traditions as well as biblical doctrine, until today when you get nearly all churches unbiblical in ground/basis. The body of Christ is the church, His bride and members are all born again believers. To be born again is to turn your life around and live a Christ filled life, Jesus said Ye must be born again. In the Pauline letters we are shown how to behave, what to wear and the order of those in charge. No one man can "lord it" over the others. No one man takes over the entire meeting/service, no one has a title, i.e. pastor, vicar, priest, reverend etc., we are all brothers and sisters in Christ. Of course there must be Elders, Bishops and Deacons (plural) or like the church at Corinth, there would be chaos and unruly. All things must be done in order. So many traditions of mans liking have crept into these denominations there is little resemblance of the original "assembling ourselves together", not to mention that most of the folk who attend the majority of churches are not born again. Originally preachers went out with the gospel and brought in the converts. If Adam looked at all the animals to look for a helpmeet – and at the same time named them – but couldn't find any suitable to be his wife – none in his likeness, they were animals and he was man. So evolution is a myth on these grounds. So that is it for this time, hope my thoughts have given you something to think about too. And Revelation 22:12 says And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be. EVEN SO, COME, LORD JESUS.

Who are you helping? What good are you doing for others? When was the last time you stepped outside your comfort zone to do good for someone else? What sacrifices have you made for others? Do you care? Are you willing to change?

Preaching & teaching God's word...

No matter how small your congregation, mine is very small indeed, I always want to give my best when preaching & teaching. I want to feed the flock as directed to in Acts 20v28 with fresh 'meat' (1 Cor 3v2, Heb 5v12-14), not give them stale old meat dragged up 'again'. There are many times when I'm teaching that I feel very inadequate & only wished I knew the Book much better than I do. I convict myself that I should be spending a lot more time in the word, so I can keep giving out profitable material (Acts 20v20), I never want to 'just give a sermon', I want the words to come from my heart being guided by the Spirit of God so that we can all feast on the word of God together. I do not put more effort in if more people come, I give my best even if just one turned up. Because the word of God is so convicting I also feel a hypocrite at times, as I know I should be doing what I am preaching (Rom 2); it's easy in many ways to 'preach' & say what we should be doing, but to live that out, that's the tough part isn't it. I've said it before I know, but reading the Scriptures can really beat you up can't it, it convicts & rebukes you, it shows you where you are going wrong & what you should do to put things right. That is why a lot of people who backslide stop reading their Bibles immediately, some even get rid of them because they just can't stand their conscience being pricked all the time knowing it is in the house.

Great little study on Luke 15v1-7 taken from Ruckman's commentary with a few added bits.

Read Luke 15v1-7. Thank the Lord that He ate with sinners & He received sinners – I'm a sinner! (Rom 5v8). Now the spiritual application to these verses is that Jesus is the Good Shepherd who gives His life for the sheep (John 10v11). He came to seek you as a sheep who had 'gone astray' (Isa 53v6) & save you (Luke 19v10). The Holy Spirit was sent to seek you & draw you to Christ. The Father waits to receive you if you will come to Him in repentance & faith (even though Hyper-Dispensationalists don't get / understand that). Now applying these verses 'doctrinally' is something else! If you make the lost sheep a 'saved' man, like you find in John 10v26-28, how come the Good Shepherd has 'lost' one? See how easily it would be to teach that you CAN lose your salvation from this passage? You CANNOT lose your salvation in THIS dispensation Note also in John 10v28! Now if you make the sheep a 'lost' man, the Good Shepherd now 'leaves' 99 saved sheep 'in the wilderness' (v4) to go find one lost sheep. What is He doing leaving ANY of His sheep when He said 'I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee' Heb 13v5. How is it that only one sheep went 'astray' (Mat 18v12) when the Bible says 'ALL we like sheep have gone astray' Isa 53v6? See the problems here regarding doctrinal application?

So if Jesus is NOT talking about saved men & lost men 'doctrinally', then to whom is He referring to? Read Ps 100v3 Know ye that the LORD he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture. God's people in the OT are Israel (2 Chron 7v14). THEY are His sheep, & He calls them 'my flock' throughout Ezek 34. The parable is given in response to one group of Jews (the Pharisees & scribes – Luke 15v2), complaining about another group of Jews (the publicans & sinners – Luke 15v1), coming to Christ. Jesus is explaining to the Pharisees & scribes His purpose in regards 'to the lost sheep of the house of Israel' (Mat 10v6).

So like we say, you can use this passage in Luke 15 as good Gospel preaching, but doctrinally it's not aimed at Gentiles or the Church. Good preaching is not always good doctrine, & good doctrine is not always good preaching – remember that. This is why Hyper-dispensationalists (e.g. Colic-Caldwell, Fake-Pfenny etc.) are never able to lead a soul to Christ & do not care about getting the Gospel out to sinners; they would rather just keep chopping up the Bible & telling everyone what parts you shouldn't be reading; 'Hypers' are useless.

Like Ruckman says, he uses Rom 6v23 & Rev 3v20 all the time when reaching lost souls, yet neither verse was written to a LOST man DOCTRINALLY.

So going back to Luke 15... you can certainly preach it as Jesus Christ is coming to find the lost sinner to save him, because in a sense, it's true. The sheep is lost; the sinner is lost. The lost sheep isn't in the flock; the lost sinner isn't in God's flock. The sheep is out on the mountainside about ready to die; the lost sinner is about ready to die & go to Hell. The sheep can't save itself; the lost sinner can't save himself. The shepherd had to save the sheep; Jesus Christ, the great shepherd (Heb 13v20, 1 Pet 2v25) has to save the sinner. You see, salvation is all through this passage so you might as well preach it, but it's NOT 'good' DOCTRINE (2 Tim 2v15). THE BOOK is not only 'profitable for doctrine' BUT 'for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness' as well (2 Tim 3v16).

Luke 15v7 - I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance. Again the 'sinner' of v7 is one of those bad people in v1+2, the 'just persons' would be the scribes & Pharisees who thought they kept the Law so that they didn't need to repent of anything. That's the immediate application. But you can apply that 'sinner' there to ANY sinner who gets saved. Look at what Paul says in 1 Thes 2v19 For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming? That's the 'crown of rejoicing' – it's a soul-winners crown (something NO Hyper-Dispensationalist will ever receive). There is such rejoicing in Heaven when a sinner gets saved. This verse is also a great verse for eternal security, as you don't hear of Heaven moaning & groaning that suddenly a saved person lost his salvation then got it back again... imagine all the 'ups & downs' THAT would cause in Heaven!

Why I get so many Christians writing to me, emailing & calling disagreeing with me on doctrine, all comes back to most of them not being dispensational therefore not being able to rightly DIVIDE the Scriptures correctly (2 Tim 2v15). That's it! Like someone has said "Get Israel in the right position & you'll get your doctrine right"... there's a lot of truth in that!

The Blood

I've included the following article as another proof that evolution is totally a 'religion' that requires blind FAITH to believe something so stupid. Read this & ask yourself where the intelligence came from to stop your cut from bleeding? The blood is amazing & your body with all its systems is an incredible design. Evolution is a fairy story believed by people who can't think for themselves, like Richard 'The Dork' Dawkins & his ilk. Our God of creation is unfathomable in so many things, He is right on everything & perfect in all His ways. Man is just a rebellious imbecilic oaf who, because of pride, thinks he is right all the time. God's fingerprints are everywhere all over this world & universe, you've got to be blind not to see them.

Parts of the Blood

Blood sample with red blood cells, white blood cells and platelets

Our blood has two main parts – blood cells and plasma. The plasma is the liquid part of the blood. It is mainly water. It contains proteins, fats, salt, and other substances. Some of the proteins are important in blood clotting.

The blood cells are red cells, white cells, and platelets. Red blood cells carry oxygen to all parts of the body. White blood cells help fight infection. Platelets are tiny cells that have a big job in stopping bleeding. Proteins in the blood called clotting factors work to form a clot. In order to understand bleeding disorders, you have to know how the proteins and the platelets in the blood work together.

Our bodies make platelets inside the marrow of our bones. Platelets are disc shaped cells that are so small they can only be seen with a microscope. They are less than half the size of a red blood cell. One drop of blood contains tens of thousands of platelets. About 70% of your body's platelets float around in your bloodstream. The other 30% are stored in an organ behind the stomach called the spleen. Each platelet travels in the bloodstream for seven to ten days. Then, if it has not been used to make a blood clot, cells in the spleen and liver destroy it. Every day 200 billion new platelets enter the bloodstream to take the place of those that are used or destroyed.

Stopping Bleeding

Blood travels around inside your body through blood vessels. These include veins, arteries, and capillaries. You can think of the blood vessels as pipes and tubes carrying blood to all parts of your body. When one of these pipes is damaged, the blood can spill out. Sometimes this happens on the outside when your skin is cut or scratched. Sometimes it happens just under the skin, causing a bruise. Other times the blood can be leaking out of a blood vessel inside the body. In all cases, the body must work to stop the leak and repair the pipe. First, the blood vessel gets smaller The first thing the body does is make the blood vessel smaller so less blood is going through it and leaking out. Muscles in the wall of the blood vessel make this happen.

Next, a platelet plug is made

The next step in stopping the bleeding is making a platelet plug. A platelet plug is a temporary patch over the leak. Three things must happen to make a good platelet plug: adhesion, activation and secretion, and aggregation. If there is a problem with any of these, a person is more likely to bleed.

Platelet Adhesion

In order to make a plug, the platelets floating in the blood must stick to the torn wall of the blood vessel. This is called adhesion.

Blood vessels are lined with smooth cells called endothelial cells. When the blood vessel is torn, the blood comes in contact with the substance under the endothelial cells. This substance is called collagen. Platelets floating by in the blood are attracted to collagen. They quickly move to the site of the injury.

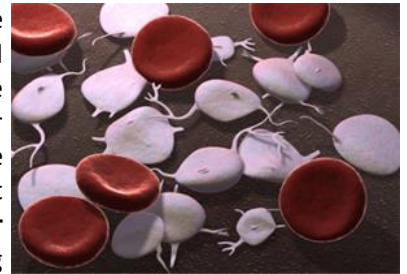

In order for the platelets to stick to the collagen, they need a "glue." The "glue" that sticks platelets to the collagen is a protein in the blood called Von Willebrand Factor (VWF). The Von Willebrand Factor (VWF) attaches to the platelet at certain places on the platelet's surface. These places are called receptors.

Von Willebrand Factor is stored in the endothelial cells lining the blood vessels. The endothelial cells release the VWF into the blood.

Activation and Secretion

After the platelets stick to the collagen where the blood vessel is torn, they change their shape. Each platelet changes from a smooth disk to a ball shape with long arms that can reach out to other platelets. This is called platelet activation. Activated platelets can stick to each other and to clotting proteins in the blood.

Inside each platelet are storage spaces called granules. When the platelet changes shape, chemicals inside the granules are pushed out into the bloodstream. This is called secretion. These chemicals from the granules signal other platelets to come and help. The chemicals allow the next step in forming a platelet plug, aggregation, to happen.

Platelets come together to form a platelet plug

Aggregation

To form a platelet plug, the platelets have to stick to each other as well as to the blood vessel. This is called platelet aggregation. The platelets form a clump that plugs the hole in the blood vessel.

When platelets can stick to the blood vessel (adhesion), change shape and signal other platelets to come help (activation and secretion), and stick to each other (aggregation), a good platelet plug is made. Though it is a complex process, it normally only takes seconds. A platelet plug is only a temporary fix. It can't last long on its own. A fibrin clot is needed.

Finally, a fibrin clot is formed

A fibrin clot is a good, strong patch over a hole in a blood vessel. It is normally enough to stop the bleeding completely. Proteins in the blood called clotting factors work together to make the fibrin clot. Twelve clotting factors are named with Roman numerals (I, II, III, IV, V, VII, VIII, IX, X, XI, XII, XIII).

The clotting factors work together to make threads of a protein called fibrin. The fibrin threads weave over the platelet plug to make a strong clot. The body then has time to heal the blood vessel. When it is no longer needed, the body gets rid of the fibrin clot.

To Review

Bleeding is supposed to stop after three things happen:

The injured blood vessel gets smaller to let less blood through.

Platelets rush to the site and stick together to form a platelet plug. The platelets do this through adhesion, activation and secretion, and aggregation.

Clotting factor proteins in the blood work together to make threads of fibrin. The fibrin weaves itself into a clot over the platelet plug. This makes a strong seal.

For the life of the flesh is in the blood: and I have given it to you upon the altar to make an atonement for your souls: for it is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul.

Lev 17v11

Stubbornness

1 Sam 15v23 For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry. Because thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, he hath also rejected thee from being king.

Ps 78v6-8 That the generation to come might know them, even the children which should be born; who should arise and declare them to their children: That they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments: And might not be as their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation; a generation that set not their heart aright, and whose spirit was not stedfast with God. More & more I see it, especially with the elderly. They get set in their ways & that's it. This is why it is very difficult for an elderly person to get saved, they have been rebelling against God all their lives, so why should they change at the end. Isn't it near impossible to even help some old people, they won't let you. You could make their life so much easier for them, but they will not let you do it, why is that... stubbornness, PRIDE! It's not only sad, it's tragic. Stubbornness can be good & bad, the majority being bad I suppose. Are you like this? Are you willing to let go, let other people come first? Are you teachable & a good listener or does pride keep getting in the way. Do you even want to change your character? May the Lord help us all to change & be the people that He wants us to be rather than being conformed to the world, carnality & pride.

When was the last time you apologised?

Humility (1 Pet 5v5) is seldom seen among Christians today, let alone those who make poor decisions, run away, leave, make out they are right in everything & everyone is against them. When was the last time you were wrong & you swallowed your pride & apologised? Exactly! It's hard to 'play the man' isn't it. Do you know why so many Christians leave so many churches & just drift from one to the next? It's all because of pride; they think they are right & will leave when something doesn't go their way. They will do this at every church they visit & will never stay for more than a year or so. Oh, they'll pretend to be godly by saying all the right things & duping the leader & people there, but really they are just unstable arrogant immature Christians who don't know what humility is neither how to apologise when they are wrong. This is Christianity today!

Grace occurs in 159 verses (See Tft! issue 49 page 11)

The word 'grace' has so many different meanings, it's a word full of depth. Now, I want to ask you a question... 'When is it time to leave, go, get out?' If you are in a church & you disagree over 'one thing', but the doctrine is sound 99% of the time, do you leave over that 'one thing'? Why is it that most Christians do? Immaturity & pride I guess. You throw the baby out with the bathwater, as they say. I find it quite amazing that over just one issue, that really isn't that important, although the injured party thinks it is, a person will leave the church & never come back. That is immaturity personified, & I find it staggering, that's why I say most Christians are very childish & never seem to grow up.

The Gap FACT! (Part EIGHT)

Continuing from the book 'The Gap Fact' by Perry Demopoulos... Gen 1v2 And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.

"Void" - Now let's go to the next word of importance in Genesis 1:2, "void." It also has a negative connotation to it just as "without form." Again take your Bible and find in your concordance the word "void."

Now to get the added revelation which opens up Genesis 1:2 turn to the next time the word "void" is written by the Holy Spirit of God. It is in Numbers 30:12 But if her husband hath utterly MADE THEM VOID on the day he heard them; then whatsoever proceeded out of her lips concerning her vows, or concerning the bond of her soul, shall not stand: her husband hath made them void; and the LORD shall forgive her. Look how the phrase "made them void" is mentioned in verse 12, 13 and 15. The meaning is simple. You don't even have to explain it to understand it. In the context (vvs. 10, 11) the vow or a bond of a wife stands (v. 11) until her husband MAKES it void. Adam "blew it" here. He "gave in" and allowed Eve's words to stand. Satan tempted Eve to get her to fall to get to the head of the home, Adam. We can apply what was mentioned under our first point to this second point, that is, that the earth BECAME void because again, Jeremiah mentions that the earth, "it was without form, and void..." Here in Numbers 30:12, what the woman says stands until the husband makes it void. That is, it BECOMES void by the husband. He is to practice what God Himself did. He made the earth "without form and void..." because of the words and intentions of the "cherub that coverth." (Isa. 14:12, 13; Ezek. 28:15). Satan sinned and God judged the heavens and the earth, He made them void. The man is to make void anything that is said or intended by the wife that is against the word of God. Job did that when his wife told him to "curse God and die" (Job 2:9) He said, "Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh. What? Shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? In all this did not Job sin with his lips" (v. 10). He made her words void. That was very easy to figure out!!! The earth BECAME void, according to the Authorized Version of the King James Bible; no Greek, no Hebrew languages no commentaries, no ministries were necessary for the interpretation. The words of God are self-interpreting and the written revelation of God Almighty is that her words are MADE void whereas they were NOT void at one time until they are MADE void, that is, they BECOME void. "O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!" (Romans 11:33). The next time the word "void" is mentioned is in Deuteronomy 32:28 "For they are a nation void of counsel, neither is there any understanding in them." Note the reason why Israel BECAME a nation void of counsel was because of SIN. Psalm 89:39 Thou hast made void the covenant of thy servant: thou hast profaned his crown by casting it to the ground. The reason that they made void the covenant was because of SIN. The word "VOID" according to the Holy Bible is a NEGATIVE word." And for Kent Hovind, Mr. Tabb, Henry Morris and others simply don't know what they are talking about when dealing with the creation God, that the earth just "happened to be without form and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep." Let's continue to allow God to speak for Himself concerning the word "VOID" shall we? Or are you going to continue to be a blind, willfully ignorant Laodicean Christian and reject absolute light, PROGRESSIVE revelation and truth of the words of God? Psalm 119:126 It is time for thee, LORD, to work: FOR THEY HAVE MADE VOID thy law. The reason they have made void the law is because of SIN. The law was not made void at one time but it BECAME void. They made it void. Proverbs 7:7 And beheld among the simple ones, I discerned among the youths, a young man void of understanding, The reason why the simple ones are void of understanding is because of SIN. Are you beginning to notice something here? SIN is the reason why there was a "void." Look at Proverbs 10:13 and see who gets punished with a rod, "him that is void of understanding." Isaiah 55:11 So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it. "And I will MAKE VOID the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place; and I will cause them to FALL by the sword before their enemies, and by the hands of them that seek their lives: and their carcasses will I give to be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth" (Jer. 19:7) Notice how the words "void" and "fall" are coupled together in this verse. They are both NEGATIVE words. So it only confirms the facts that when the earth "was without form and void" is was when Satan fell and God judged him and spoiled what he rightfully had rule over. Notice carefully the revelation given by Nahum - "She is empty, (NEGATIVE) and VOID, (NEGATIVE) and waste: (NEGATIVE) and the heart melteth, (NEGATIVE) and the knees smite together, (NEGATIVE) and much pain is in all loins, (NEGATIVE) and the faces of them all gather blackness" (NEGATIVE) (Nahum 2:10). There is no possible way to say that when God created the heaven and the earth that He didn't do it right. He did it right, without error and without void. But the earth BECAME "without form and VOID" in Genesis 1:2 according to Jeremiah 4:23. "But the heavens and the earth which are now" (2 Pet. 3:7) will become without form and VOID in the Tribulation (according to Jeremiah's prophecy) after the Church is raptured (1 Thess. 4:16-18) which is a foretaste of a total dissolving of the heavens and the earth at the end of the Millennium (2 Pet. 3:7b, 10-13). Notice again that for us to come to the Biblical interpretation of the scriptures we simply took a concordance and ran references on the word "void." We allowed God to speak up for Himself. He is very capable of doing that. When it comes to interpreting the scriptures the Christian should be exercised in allowing the scriptures to speak for themselves in other portions of scriptures rather than “butting in” and speaking before hearing a matter “He that answereth a matter before he heareth it, it is folly and shame unto him” (Proverbs 18:13). Now we will not labour our point but we cannot leave this matter of what the Lord makes without discussing Isaiah 24:1, “Behold, the LORD MAKETH THE EARTH EMPTY, and MAKETH IT WASTE, and turneth it upside down, and scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof.” Notice in this verse that it is the Lord that “maketh the earth empty... and waste.” Now a more important question to ask would be WHY would God do that? It certainly is not because in His creation He started out with a blob of clay and then began to form a nice vase as was previously mentioned. In the context all becomes very clear; it is because of SIN, and God’s JUDGEMENT upon sin that God “maketh the earth empty, and maketh it waste...” Verses 2-12 speak of “usury” (v. 2) “the land shall be utterly EMPTIED” (v. 3), “the haughty people...” (v. 4), “The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants thereof; BECAUSE THEY HAVE TRANSGRESSED THE LAWS, CHANGED THE ORDINANCE, BROKEN THE EVERLASTING COVENANT” (v. 5), “CONFUSION...” (v. 10), “ALL JOY IS DARKENED” (v. 11). To overlook the revelation of God here and the similarities between this passage and Jeremiah 4:23 concerning the reason WHY the earth “that then was” (2 Pet. 3:6) “was without form and void” (Gen. 1:2) and the “heavens and the earth which are now (2 Pet. 3:7) will be in such an awful condition (Jer. 4:23) is to pass by monumental proportions of revelation of the scriptures. And that is exactly the case with many of our ‘creationist’ brethren. When you stumble over one verse to prove a point (Rom. 5:12) all other relating subjects and verses will become perverted to justify the first point.

What are you failing in?

Are you failing as a husband or wife, a friend, carrying responsibility, as a Christian etc.? We all fail at times in our lives, we give in to the flesh & we fall. We all quit when we really should be taking a stand & fighting. Oftentimes we let things go rather than sorting it all out. There are so many situations that this can relate to in our lives of course. So if we are failing in some area, what are we doing about it? If you leave it, without dealing with it, you’re doing no one any good, including yourself. There are times in our life when we need to man up, stand up & take control, & do what is right, but on numerous occasions we don’t, we fail. Are you failing in life at present? Have you poured out your heart to God asking for His guidance? If not, how do you think you’ll get out or over the situation? Are you a good mother / father to your children, are you failing them because of your lack of discipline; do you just keep saying ‘yes’ & give in to them? Then you are failing as a parent. Are you teaching your children the Scriptures? 2 Tim 3v15 And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. Are you failing to make the right decisions, therefore you’ve got yourself ‘in a rut’ or a hole, that you’re finding hard to get out of? You know, one thing I love about being a Christian is this, you can fail a million times but STILL there is hope & light at the end of the tunnel. There is always a way back to God & to do what is right, but you have to make that conscience decision to get on that path. There are many things in life we just can’t cope with on our own, even though we try, it’s in these times we need to just run back to the Lord crying out for help.

When your job gets you down

Hey listen, we all know what it’s like not to enjoy your job. It all starts off good & exciting, but then the mundane, the carnality kicks in & you start thinking ‘Is it time to move on?’ I often ask people what their ‘dream job’ would be & it’s interesting listening to their answers. Hardly anyone has ever said they are ‘living the dream’. Work can be very tough at times, especially for the Christian, as the secular world has no time for your Bible or your God, all it’s interested in is making money no matter how that is done, lie, cheat, steal, anything goes. All you can do is be the best example & ambassador you can for the Lord & take a stand as often as you can, praying that the Lord will give you opportunities for you to witness & testify for Him. Doors will open as you seek to live for

Jesus Christ I promise you. Keep doing your best & shining as bright as you can, asking the Lord to guide you in all the decisions you have to make. I’ve worked in offices, as a lorry driver, swept out warehouses, done tele-sales etc. Now that I am self-employed I’m on the road a lot & couldn’t imagine going back into an office environment all day. I love the ‘freedom’ of the road, visiting hundreds of different places all over England each year. Yesterday Dee & I did our sales call & then we were invited to look around the place... it was Belvoir Castle, & what a place. We were given a free guided tour by a guy who had been there 35 years, it was amazing. Queen Victoria, Winston Churchill, plus many other famous people have stayed at this incredible castle. It was a great day ‘at the office’ shall we say.

We don’t take any day for granted, we always try do get something out of it for the Lord no matter how mundane it appears to be. Try to enjoy every day.

‘Kenny & Benny’ or ‘Ben & Jerry’? You deserve what you get!

If you think Benny Hinn & Kenneth Copeland are sound Christians (are they even saved???), then you deserve everything that you’re gonna get! If you send your money to these absolute charlatans, you deserve poverty. If you put your faith & trust in these liars & conmen, then you will certainly be left ‘out in the cold’ in the end. These ugly, horrible, evil men, who fleece the vulnerable to line their own pockets are worse than an infidel (2 Cor 6v15, 1 Tim 5v8). They abuse weak minded people. To be brutally honest, I am shocked that anyone would even listen to these idiots, let alone follow them. Just read 1 Tim 6 & that would sort it all out. If I had the chance to fly with these two dodos on their private jet or eat a tub of ‘Ben & Jerry’s’, I’d choose the latter & get more out of it. Folks, the prosperity gospel is just a Pentecostal, charismatic, man-made show, spawned in the pit of Hell, if you’re in it, GET OUT! These guys will never make a sucker out of anyone who reads & studies their Bible, only Biblical illiterates get duped. The following men are complete charlatans & if you’re following them you’re wasting your time & rebelling against the will of God.... Creflo Dollar, Jesse Duplantis, Oral Roberts, Peter Popoff, Joel Osteen, TD Jakes, Morris Cerullo, Kenneth Hagin, Reinhard Bonnke... etc. You’d be better off watching Mr Bean, you’d learn a lot more!!!

Are you preaching the wrong Gospel?

Some Christians are very sincere, they get out there on the streets, preaching & passing out tracts, yet the Gospel they are promoting is NOT the Gospel for THIS dispensation sadly... they are wasting their time. If you think the following verses are the Gospel we should be preaching today, you are SO WRONG... Mat 24v14 And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come. (See also Mark 13v10) & Acts 2v38+39 Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call. The Gospel of the Kingdom (Mat 9v35) is NOT the Gospel of the grace of God – Acts 20v24, Rom 2v16, 1 Cor 15v1-4, Gal 1v7-12. The Gospel of the Kingdom is preached again during Jacob's Trouble, Daniel's 70th Week, The Great Tribulation. You can spend all your time preaching Acts 2v38, Mat 24v14 etc. & it will not save one soul, as no one is saved now by the Gospel of the Kingdom. What Gospel are you preaching? Get my book 'The Christian Soldier's Battle Notes' as this will help clear up what Gospel we preach today.

The End? Booklet gets another response.

Yesterday I received another email from someone who had just been given 'The End?' booklet. It obviously hit them hard as they were going through, or had just gone through, a death in the family. Like most of our literature, it certainly gets a reaction, & this little booklet is stirring up a hornet's nest it seems among many people. Have you read it? Have you ordered any copies? It may be the last message some people ever read before dying. For just 12 pence worth of words people write to me in response... wow!

Tracts on eBay

I am amazed at how many Time for Truth! tracts our friends Cristian & Liz are selling on eBay. Just yesterday they sold another 1,000 'He Loves You!' cards. Have you tried doing this as another way of getting the Gospel out? A lot of people view them which is the whole idea. All these little missionaries going out all over the UK & some overseas, thank you Lord.

Can you believe this English summer!

I can't remember ever having such hot weeks back-to-back, it's been incredible, even getting up to 32C at times. I love the evenings when it's cool & you're sitting in the garden looking at the trees & flowers & listening to the birds, but the heat is too much for me at times, especially in the evenings when trying to sleep. We always listen to sermons going to sleep, so the hot weather has certainly helped us both listen to more which has been a blessing & a great way of learning.

Lord Jesus...

All I want to do is please you, yet so often I let you down. I want to make something of my life for you & do your will, be the person that you want me to be, not what I think I should be. I'm sorry for every time I put my own desires first & pretend to be someone I'm really not. I love life, & I am very privileged to be able to live it as I do, but I want more, more of you & your word. I want to understand the Scriptures, teach & preach them, & I want to think & live as you want me to. I want to make an impact on other peoples lives & help people to find the path they should be on. I want to inspire, challenge & encourage all those I meet, giving you all the glory & praise. I never want to forget where I have come from & what I was, thanking you always for saving & forgiving me for all my sins. I have given back to you the life that you gave me, now please use me to reach lost sinners & help me make the right decisions in all that I do. I am happiest when I am in your will.

I wonder how many Tft! Gospel tracts, booklets, books, coins, coasters, CD sermons have been distributed & passed on to others, all over the world, since we started the ministry? I wonder how many lives have been impacted & souls saved? We hope & pray that it's many, but only the Lord knows. We seem to be living in the 'day of small things'. We don't see any great revivals anymore, especially in the Western World. Out of the 60 Million plus people we have here in England, can you name just 10 Christians who are 'turning this country upside down'? Acts 17v6. What's it like in the country where you live? Here in England not much is happening it seems, except the sodomites & Muslims are gaining ground like never before because of the putrid Government that rules our land. Most so-called 'Bible Believers' I see, seem only interested in sitting at home making YouTube videos attacking other 'Christians'. Most Christians have very little urgency to get out there & win souls for the Lord these days, why is that? Why aren't Christians taking a stand like those of yesteryear? What's gone wrong? The Internet is an incredible facility, both good & bad. Without it, Time for Truth! wouldn't have been able to reach so many people within 154 countries, but even then, we are such a small ministry & the masses are still not being reached. What is your part in all of this? What are YOU doing to get the Gospel out to the world? Do you care? Over 154,000 people die every day, & most I guess go to Hell. Is it any wonder that the Bible talks about Hell enlarging herself – Isa 5v14. We really are living in terribly dark days, & like Keith Green sang about all those years ago, 'The church is asleep in the light'. What is your church doing to reach lost souls, what are you doing? May God give us all an urgency & passion for lost souls. Don't get wrapped up in futile arguments among yourselves, get out there where the sinners are & win them to the Lord. Prov 11v30.

The trouble with Pentecostals

Growing up in a number of Pentecostal churches I know what I am talking about when I write about them. Year upon year I supposedly saw tongue speaking, healings & demons everywhere. Many of these Christians are sincere, but sadly deluded. All of them are very shallow in the Scriptures & this is where ALL their problems lie. If you're foundations are unsound (Ps 11v3) you'll never walk a straight line doctrinally. If you don't read & study the Scriptures dispensationally (e.g. Calvinists, Post-Tribbers & Hyper-Diapers don't) you'll wind up walking in error & teaching error. Just because something bad happens in your life doesn't mean there are demons everywhere attacking you. Oftentimes it's because you have made the wrong decisions in life & now you're paying for it. Most of the trouble in our lives comes from the mistakes we make, we are to blame. You're in the situation you're in today because of the choices you've made! True? Thinking you speak in tongues is just self-delusion & a very shallow understanding of the Bible. Thinking 'healing' is the same today as it was in the apostolic era is just showing how ignorant of the Scriptures you are. Things are different today, get that, understand that, & it will help you in your Christian life. I begged, pleaded with God, sought God with such an urgency, fasted & prayed oftentimes, cried out to Him that He would take Donna's arthritis away; do you know what happened? He answered my prayer, but NOT as I wanted or had hoped for. Donna still has arthritis. Some Pentecostals will say 'You lacked faith to believe in a healing miracle'... to which I answer "Go soak your head in a bucket!" Why didn't God heal Donna? Because it's His will that she lives with arthritis until the Rapture... He knows what is best for her. Now read 2 Cor 12 ALL OF IT. Get the picture? If you don't, you don't understand the Scriptures neither the will of God. Healing IS in the atonement, BUT, you don't get all the benefits of the atonement down here. At the Rapture, Donna will be healed. Pentecostals are LIARS! Why do I say that? Because in every Pentecostal church on planet earth a large portion of the congregation are ill, sick, diseased, have cancer, need a walking stick, are going for operations (which is a joke if they really believed what they preach & teach), die early, plus a whole host of other ailments, & all Pentecostals can do is dismiss it, make out healing is coming, make up some excuse of why they are not seeing someone healed. Do you know the difference between me & a Pentecostal? I'm honest. I've been through lots of different operations, why didn't God heal me? I've seen hundreds of sound Christians suffer, did they all lack faith? The sooner you start being honest the sooner you will understand the truth. The Bible from Genesis to Revelation, something that no one IN THE BIBLE ever had, has been given to US in this dispensation. No longer 'signs & wonders' (Mark 16v14-20), BUT the Scriptures, this is our day. Can God heal? Of course He can! Does God heal, of course He does, BUT... certainly NOT on the scale He used to, agreed? If not, then you too are a LIAR & a FAKE, & I wouldn't trust you on anything. By talking like this (honestly) it will upset many Pentecostals, & even other Christians not from that denomination, but truth is truth. I live in the REAL WORLD, not some fantasy one. By speaking the word 'Cancer' doesn't mean you'll get Cancer, Capiche? I am a Bible Believing Christian & I trust the Lord for my life, for every breath that I take. I could drop dead at anytime & I am in His hands. I believe The King James Bible to be the word of God, absolutely perfect & without error. I also know, that through lack of Bible teaching, the Pentecostal denomination has caused so much mental suffering among its members because the leaders don't know what they are talking about. It always makes me laugh (in a sad way) when a Pentecostal pastor gets ill & goes to the doctors or has to go to hospital for an operation. They are FAKES! Be honest, seek the truth of God's word & don't trust anyone that believes that signs & wonders are for today. Now, if tongues & healings are not the same today, what about demons (devils) & demonic activity, is this the same today with all it's manifestations? When was the last time you saw a human breaking chains (Mark 5v15), or demons entering pigs? Mat 8v28-34 Come on folks, BE HONEST, tell it like it is, speak out. Saying Cancer does NOT give you Cancer!!! Get it? You think the last two passages of Scripture are seen today in 2018? Really? When was the last time you saw a man with no ear suddenly get healed & an ear put back on? Luke 22v47-51. You think Benny Hinn does that? How about that jackass Kenneth Copeland, you think he has put limbs back on? Now, IF you believe in 'healers', that they can do that, you seriously ought to be sectioned at the local mental hospital. People like you shouldn't be walking the streets alone. Am I too harsh? No friend, I'm NOT HARD ENOUGH! I'm sick of these fakes, lying & cheating simple folks, promising healing to these sad people, yet delivering nothing, but fleecing them for their money. They are evil & will get the shock of their life when they stand face to face with Jesus Christ. If you read & study your King James Bible you will NOT get sucked into these charlatans. Not one of you speaks in a Heavenly language you think is 'tongues', if you say you do, you are a self-deluded LIAR. You ought to grow up, repent of your sins & apologise for being such a LIAR. Donna started off as a 'wheelchair case' when she was first diagnosed with arthritis; they drained pints of fluid from her body; she couldn't open her buttons, walk properly, tie her shoes or hold a pan to cook. Her knee ballooned so much she couldn't straighten her leg; her shoulder ballooned so much she couldn't raise her arm. She didn't whine or complain to anyone, she prayed. It scared me to death, but I didn't let on to her, I prayed. We both prayed, many people prayed, all of us asked God to heal her. Now her arthritis has stabilised & she leads a fairly normal life, I thank God for that, I thank God that He stopped this disease going any further. I am so thankful to Him for all that He has done for Donna. If all the prosperity fake healers on earth came to stay with us, I wouldn't let one of them lay hands on Donna, pray for Donna or 'cast out' next door's demonic cat, they are just FAKES & LIARS. I repeat, I'm a Bible Believing Christian who trusts God for every single thing in my life, & I read His word & try to live by it. The Spirit of God guides me & through Him & His word, I seek discernment, knowledge & wisdom. Job done! If you want to believe in all this man-made hogwash, be my guest. If you want to stand up in a Pentecostal service singing endless choruses to whip things up, go ahead, doesn't bother me in the slightest. If you want to walk to the front of the church claiming your healing from a FAKE, do it, enjoy it, but don't push that slop on me fella, I've been there & seen it all – 1 Cor 13v11. May God help us all to understand His will & deliver us from all the rubbish that seems to fill churches today. Do you know what we did at church today? We grabbed a chair, sat outside, prayed, read the Scriptures, I preached, we closed in prayer & then we had a cup of tea & some fellowship. We then went home. No songs, no communion, no entertainment, just the word of God. 2 Cor 3v5 Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God; He is all we need. God HATES showmanship, & so do I.

Drop me a letter or an email...

I'd love to know what's happening in your life, church, business etc. What are you doing for the Lord? How are things where you are? Have you got any good ideas, ambitions & goals we can all enter into, pray for? What's your next step? Is there someone who you would like us to send this newsletter or our sermons to, if so just let us know, we want to help as many folk as possible. Thank you again to all of you who pray & support us here at Time for Truth! A special thank you to Alan O'Reilly who has helped this ministry for years, & who has stood with us & helped us through many a battle. I am so saddened by the way England has gone down the drain over the last 30 years, I cannot believe how bad things are here, irreversible, until the Lord comes. Our job is to 'Occupy till I come' Luke 19v13, & so we are doing. Keep on tracting & standing upon the word of God as your final authority. Be the best witness, ambassador & testimony for the Lord you possibly can, asking Him to lead you to the right people & keep you away from the wrong ones. Be careful not to get dragged into fruitless arguments & debates & stay away from Calvinism, Hyper-Dispensationalism, the Post-Tribulation heresy & the nutjob Charismatic Movement. Read your King James Bible as much as you can, rather than spending so much time on YouTube. Live as a Christian should, repent of your sins & stay in fellowship with the Lord. Don't try to be someone you're not, & get rid of all the pride in your life. Christians who are proud are an abomination in the eyes of God. Do your best at all times & work hard. Don't quit. Love & support each other. Try to be a blessing to as many people as you can.
